

Date: October 25, 2011

Rochester Board of Education Forms Superintendent Search Committee

The Rochester Board of Education will move forward with a search for a permanent Superintendent of Schools.

The Board announced the formation of an ad hoc advisory Superintendent Search Committee that will be responsible for reviewing and evaluating information relating to the recruitment, identification and appointment of a permanent Superintendent. The ad hoc Committee, chaired by Board President Malik Evans, is comprised of Board members, parents and stakeholders from the business, higher education and public sectors of our community, including:

Jack Cannon, CEO
Cannon Industries

Kimberly McKinsey-Mabry, Parent Representative
Excellence in Student Achievement Committee

Carlos Carballada, Commissioner
City of Rochester

Emeterio (Peter) Otero, Executive Dean
Monroe Community College

Giancarlo Giannini, Parent Representative
Finance and Resource Allocation Committee

Victoria Robertson, Parent Representative
Policy Development and Review Committee

Felix Jacobs, Parent Representative
Community and Intergovernmental Relations
Committee

Loretta Scott, Councilmember
Rochester City Council

"The selection of a Superintendent of Schools is one of the most important decisions the Board of Education will make," said Board President Malik Evans. "In keeping with our promise for robust community involvement and input we have formed a committee that will work to secure the best academic, fiscal and public engagement leader for our District and community."

The Committee will continue to keep all stakeholders informed of our progress through regular communications and through formal press releases as developments require.

#