

School 25 Newsletter – December 2015

This month, we had a special visit from Santa, thanks to the kind folks from Kiwanis.

Several of the classes made gingerbread houses, including Mrs. Grey/Mr. Passalugo's class. Student pen pals from Fairport High came in, worked with the students on their classwork and then the fun began.

There is a new addition in Mrs. Huggins/Ms. Santiago's room. Have you seen their bullfrog? It is huge! (see below)

We are thinking of having another frog naming contest. Start coming up with some good ideas.

School 25 has 5 school goals

Each month we will feature one of these goals to familiarize you with them.

The fourth of these goals:

Differentiation of instruction to engage students

On Thursday evening, we had our chorus and band concert

This was one of the largest group of students participating and it was standing room only for the event.

We even had a surprise performance by Julianna Garcia (pictured above.) As Mrs. Lazio said, "It is nice to see how far our students have come in just a few short years in band. " A big thank you to Ms. Woodruff for helping our students to shine!
