Cheap and Healthy Food

Some people equate healthy, organic foods with higher bills at the grocery store. In fact, one of the main reasons why we are suffering from an obesity epidemic in this country is because so many unhealthy, processed foods are available for pennies per serving.

Fortunately, there are plenty of healthy, organic choices that are also available for pennies per serving.

Here are 25 examples:

1. Brown rice
2. Whole wheat bread
3. Greek yogurt
4. Oatmeal
5. Spinach
6. Vegetarian refried beans
7. Dried lentils
8. Bananas
9. Oranges
10. Carrots
11. Cabbage
12. Chickpeas
13. Canned tuna
14. Whole wheat pasta
15. Eggs
16. Pinto beans
17. Natural peanut butter
18. Red Delicious apples
19. Sweet potatoes
20. Kale
21. Walnuts
22. Olive oil
23. Avocados
24. Rutabagas
25. Collard greens

A: Sorry, but I can't see you right now!

A: A pretty good report card!

Q: What goes "Ha, ha, ha...plop."

A: Someone laughing their head off.

Q: If two's company and three's a crowd, what are four and five?

A: Nine.

Q: What happens if you throw a red rock into a blue lake?

A: It gets wet.

Q: Why did the kangaroo stop hopping?

A: Because it was out of bounds.
