

Expanded Learning Time at NRCS

NRCS is in the planning process to possibly have Expanded Learning Time starting in the 2013-2014 school year.

What is Expanded Learning Time?

- Expanded Learning Time is a way to add extra hours of instruction time for every student at NRCS. NRCS is working with The National Center for Time & Learning (NCTL) to create high quality and sustainable learning time.
- Expanded Learning Time involves these 4 pieces: Academic, Social Emotional, Recreational, and Parent Engagement.

Where are we in the planning process?

- We are gathering information about how our school currently uses time.
- We are investigating how other schools have used Expanded Learning Time to provide learning opportunities.
- We are investigating how extra time will help our students.
- We are gathering information from key stakeholders like you!

How can you be a part of the planning process?

Please complete the attached questionnaire or click on the following link to complete it in order to have a voice in this planning process.

Expanded Learning Time Questionnaire

---

There is a possibility that we can offer new and different classes to meet student needs in the following areas: Academic, Social Emotional, Recreational, and Parent Engagement.

What ideas/suggestions do you have about what we can offer our students at NRCS?
