The Crucible

WRITTEN BY Arthur Miller

DIRECTED BY Edward H. Myers, Jr.

The Crucible is Arthur Miller's gripping, Tony Award-winning drama. It explores one man's fight to save his identity in a repressive Puritanical community where intolerance collides with lust and superstition. The Crucible reflects the infinite capacity for both goodness and evil which lurks within us all.

Almost,
Maine

WRITTEN BY John Cariani

DIRECTED BY Michelle Accorso Sapere

On a cold, clear, moonless night in the middle of winter, all is not quite what it seems in the remote, mythical town of Almost, Maine. As the northern lights hover in the star-filled sky above, Almost's residents find themselves falling in and out of love in unexpected and often hilarious ways. Knees are bruised and hearts are broken and mended again in this delightful midwinter night's dream.

Bugsy Malone

BOOK BY Alan Parker
MUSIC AND Lyrics by Paul Williams
DIRECTED BY Lorie Dengler Dewey

Bugsy Malone is a pint-sized, pin-striped, tuneful tribute to the gangster films of the 1920s. Two gangs, comprised completely of children, are involved in a gangster rivalry that would put Al Capone and his boys to shame. Bugsy is unwillingly thrust into the gangster limelight in this tongue-in-cheek musical comedy romp.
