

RocRead April 2014

Students in 7th – 12th grades are encouraged to read over the holiday break. You can read any book you choose, but there are lists of suggested titles if you're looking for some inspiration – you can view the lists at:

Monroe County Library Teen Book Lists

<https://sites.google.com/site/mclsteens/booklists>

2013 Quick Picks for Young Adults

<http://www.ala.org/yalsa/booklists/quickpicks/2013>

Please also visit a branch of the Monroe County or Rochester Public Libraries. There are 11 branches throughout the City. The Monroe County Library System is offering special programs throughout December. Check with your local branch to see what events and programs are scheduled.

Students that participate in December, February and April RocRead events will have their name entered into a drawing to win great prizes!

This form and your response must be turned in to your teacher between April 21st – April 25th.

First and Last Name _____ School _____

Grade _____ Homeroom or English Teacher _____

Your Roc Reads Assignment: Choose ONE of the following questions and answer it fully. You need to have at LEAST FIVE SENTENCES. You can use the back of this page for your response or submit a separate paper. Please attach this RocRead form to your paper.

For whichever prompt you chose, be sure to use textual evidence, specific details and page numbers from your RocRead novel. Quote from your novel at least 2 times!

1. What type of conflict does the main character go through in your RocRead novel?
2. How has a character changed throughout the course of your RocRead novel?
3. What are 2 decisions the main character makes in your RocRead novel? What are the consequences?
4. Describe the journey the characters go on in your RocRead novel.
5. What life-lesson have you learned as a result of reading your RocRead novel?
6. How do characters deal with hardships/survival in your RocRead novel?
7. Describe the battle between good and evil in your RocRead novel.

