School Features

- Encourages students to complete a minimum of two AP courses of study, which include: AP Language, AP Literature, AP Statistics, AP Environment, and AP Human Geography. The College Prep Center supports students and families with the application process and necessary steps to pursue post-secondary education with an emphasis on career education and development. The center also prepares students for the PSAT and SAT tests.
- Offers a wide range of academic, social and emotional support for students, as well as a smaller learning environment.
- Offers an after-school program that allows students the opportunity to study beyond the school day in support of their academic needs and in preparation for Regents examinations.
- Is preparing students for the health and science field by introducing students to Global Health. This course emphasizes the understanding of human health and disease. Students explore new research, new drugs, devices, and medical treatments; human rights and medical ethics.
- Provides a strong arts program offering courses in Studio I and II, Drawing & Painting, Digital Photography, and Principles of Design.
