Timeline of Mission & Vision Work at East

Timeline of Mission & Vision Work at East
 • Mission of school defined for EPO by University of Rochester with input from stakeholder groups • Link to the EPO's mission • Parents give input on what they want for students in the New East
• Link to the parent goals for students
 Newly hired teachers and administrators define what they believe the mission of East should be using and responding to the EPO's mission Link to the graph of what teachers believed the mission should be Link to teachers working draft of mission
• Students surveyed to give input on their goals and their vision of what East should be • Link to summary of student goals
• Secretaries, teaching assistants, paraprofessionals, custodians and food service personnel define what they believe the mission for East graduates should be and respond to working drafts • Link to summary of staff goals
 Current students guided through three weeks of Family Group experiences where they discuss what it means to have voice, explore what the future may hold and schools of the future may look like and they refine their idea of the mission for East. Link to Eagle Eye roving reporter interview with students about the work