

Welcome to the OHANAs Parent Group at Flower City School 54

At Flower City School 54, we believe every child thrives when families and schools work together—and our OHANAs Parent Group is at the heart of that partnership. The OHANAs (Our Home and School Network of Advocacy & Support) brings together families, staff, and community members to create meaningful connections and enriching opportunities for our students. 🤝 ✨

What We Do

Monthly Meetings

The OHANAs meet once a month to plan events, share ideas, and collaborate on ways to strengthen our school community. All families are welcome, and every voice matters.

Daily Volunteering Opportunities

Whether you can give an hour a week or a few minutes each morning, there are many ways to get involved. From classroom support to special projects and daily school needs, parents and caregivers are encouraged to volunteer in ways that fit their schedule.

Family Events & Experiences

Throughout the year, the OHANAs host a variety of family-centered events designed to build community, celebrate our students, and make school a joyful place for everyone. From seasonal celebrations to academic nights and community gatherings, there's always something happening.
