Literacy Syllabus for Read 180

Read 180 Model - Read 180 is a literacy model where students rotate between three stations: (1) guided reading, (2) independent reading, and (3) computer software. During guided reading, students meet in small groups with the teacher for instruction on reading strategies. The computer software provides differentiated instruction based upon a student's areas of need.

Workshop 1 - The New Americans Skills and Understandings

Comprehension:	Vocabulary:	Writing:	Conventions:
● Main Idea and Details ● Text Evidence ● Analyze	● Target Words ● Synonyms ● Antonyms	● Informational Paragraph	● Identifying Sentences and Fragments ● Using End Punctuation

Workshop 2 - When Disaster Strikes Skills and Understandings

Comprehension:	Vocabulary:	Writing:	Conventions:
● Sequence of Events ● Text Evidence ● Synthesize	● Target Words ● Prefixes ● Suffixes	● Narrative Paragraph	● Correcting Sentence Fragments ● Using Capital Letters

Workshop 3 - Identity Crisis Skills and Understandings

Comprehension:	Craft and Structure:	Vocabulary:	Writing:
● Story Elements ● Text Evidence ● Evaluate	● Text Structure ● Speaker/Persona ● Point of View ● Simile ● Rhyme	● Target Words ● Verb Endings ● Word Families	● Literacy Analysis Conventions: ● Correcting Run-On Sentences ● Using Correct Word Order

Workshop 4 - Stolen Childhoods Skills and Understandings

Comprehension:	Vocabulary:	Writing:	Conventions:
- Summarize - Text Evidence - Analyze - Synthesize	- Target Words - Using a Dictionary - Multiple-Meaning Words	Informational Summary	- Using Correct Verb Tense - Using Commas in Series