Unit 1

Workbook

This Workbook contains worksheets that accompany many of the lessons from the Teacher Guide for Unit 1. Each worksheet is identified by the lesson number in which it is used. The worksheets in this book do not include written instructions for students because the instructions would have words that are not decodable. Teachers will explain these worksheets to the students orally, using the instructions in the Teacher Guide. The Workbook is a student component, which means each student should have a Workbook.

Dear Family Member,

It is exciting to start the school year—a warm welcome back to you and your child!

During the early weeks of school, we will review the skills taught in Kindergarten. This review period will also give us the opportunity to get to know your child better so we can identify his or her particular areas of strength and weakness in reading. It is important that we determine exactly what level of instruction is most appropriate for your child.

Once we have completed our evaluations, your child will be placed in the instructional materials most appropriate for his or her learning needs. You will begin to see more examples of class work, as well as homework, on a regular basis.

It is important that parents become involved in the education of their child. If you would like information on how you can help your child at home, please do not hesitate to contact me. You will continue to receive periodic parent letters that will give you tips and activities to do with your child at home. I look forward to teaching your child this year and helping each student to grow as a reader!

Dear Family Member,

Your child has been taught to read words by saying the sounds and then blending them together to make a word. Below are some words your child should be able to read with practice. Ask your child to cut out the word cards. Show the cards to your child and have him or her read them. Please encourage your child to read the words by saying individual sounds and then blending them together to make a word. The words marked with a star are Tricky Words. These are words that are not pronounced as students may expect; we say that Tricky Words do not play by the rules. As an extension of this activity, ask your child to copy the words onto a sheet of paper. Please keep the word cards for future practice.

Dear Family Member,

This is a story your child has read at school. Encourage your child to read the story aloud to you and talk about the events in the story. If your child has difficulty reading a word, encourage your child to blend the word letter by letter to read it.

The Flag Shop

Mom and I went in a lot of shops in the U.K. One of the shops was a flag shop.

The shop had the U.S. flag, the French flag, and the U.K. flag.

That's Mom in the snap shot, with the U.S. flag.

The U.K. flag has a big red cross on it.

Nat and his mom held one up.

I got this snap shot of the two of them with the flag.

Dear Family Member,

This is a story your child has read at school. Encourage your child to read the story aloud to you and talk about the events in the story. If your child has difficulty reading a word, encourage your child to blend the word letter by letter to read it.

Which is the Best?

This is a snap shot Mom got.

All of us had to run up a bunch of steps to get to this spot.

Nat and I ran up fast. The moms had to huff and puff to get to the top.

This next snap shot is one that I got. It is Nat with a bunch of big rocks.

Nat had Mom and Dot lift him up.

Then Nat said, "Beth, get a snap shot of this! I am the rock on top! Get it?"

So which snap shot is the best?

This is a story your child has probably read at least once, possibly several times, at school. Encourage your child to read the story to you and then talk about it together. Note that the tricky parts in Tricky Words are underlined in gray.

The Man in the Kilt

Once Nat and I met a man in a kilt.

I said, "Why is that man in a dress?"

Nat said, "That is not a dress. It is a kilt."

"A quilt?"

I said. "No," Nat said. "A kilt."

"What is a kilt?" I said.

Mom said, "The kilt tells us that the man is a Scot. The cloth on the kilt tells us where the man is from."

"So the kilt tells us his past?" I said.

"Yes," said Mom. "It is a bit of his past."

Mom got this snap shot of us with the man in the kilt!

This is a story your child has probably read at least once, possibly several times, at school. Encourage your child to read the story to you and then talk about it together. Note that the tricky parts in Tricky Words are underlined in gray.

The Map

Once all of us were on a trip when a dog ran up and bit the map.

Dot said, "Bad dog! Stop that! Drop that map! Drop it!"

But the dog did not drop the map. The dog ran up the block with the map.

Nat ran to get the map, but Dot said, "It is just a map. Let the dog have it."

Just then the dog let the map drop. Nat got it and held it up.

"Here it is," Nat said. "But it's got a big rip in it."

"Well," Dot said, "I am just glad the dog bit the map and not one of us."

This is a story your child has probably read at least once, possibly several times, at school. Encourage your child to read the story to you and then talk about it together. Note that the tricky parts in Tricky Words are underlined in gray.

Lunch at the King's Pub

At the King's Pub, all of us had fish and chips.

All of the pubs in the U.K. sell fish and chips. The fish and chips I had in the King's Pub were the best I had in the U.K.

Yum, yum!

Nat had a glass of milk with his fish and chips.

Then his hand hit the glass. Splash!

The milk went on Dot's fish and chips.

This snap shot tells it all.
