Center For Youth

The Center for Youth delivers the Alternatives to Suspension (ATS) program at School #17 as well as other conflict mediation services. ATS is designed to:

- reduce short-term, out-of-school suspensions;
- minimize disruptive behavior;
- avoid future suspensions;
- and keep youth on track with their academics.

Instead of sending students home, the school keeps students in a classroom with a Social Learning Specialist from The Center for Youth and a teacher or teacher's aide. The Center for Youth provides socio-emotional support and teaches life-skills and positive coping mechanisms, while the teacher ensures the students complete their regular classroom assignments.

Center for Youth Contacts:

Coordinator: Qawan Bollar

Conflict Mediator: Tyler Musgrove

Location: 122.1

Phone: (585) 436-2560 EXT 1221

The Center for Youth provides many more services to youth, from prevention education to counseling to emergency shelter to youth development opportunities.

Phone: (585) 271-7670

Hillside Children's Center

The Hillside Family of Agencies provide a wide variety of services for the Rochester Community. The agencies work both individually and together to put children, youth and families on a path to success and help break the damaging cycles of poverty, trauma, and neglect. A Hillside family therapist is stationed at School #17 for 4 days/week to work with students and their families. Referrals must be made through the school.

Program contact: Anissa Grasley    Phone: (585) 436-2560 EXT 1464    Email: agrasley@hillside.com

AmeriCorps

AmeriCorps is a national service program offering opportunities for individuals to serve their country through community service. For a full-time term of service, AmeriCorps members receive a modest living allowance and an education award. The program is sponsored by Monroe Community College and its offices are located at the Damon City Campus in downtown Rochester.

Three AmeriCorps members are placed at School #17, where they work with school staff to improve students' academic engagement.

AmeriCorps members work with students during "what I need" time to provide targeted intervention and academic enrichment.

Help Me Read

In its 10th year at School #17, the Help Me Read program matches elementary level students with an adult reading mentor from the community. Mentors/tutors travel to the school on a weekly basis to meet one-on-one with their assigned student, where they read books and engage in other educational and personal enrichment activities. Tutors act as a collaborative partner with parents and teachers, working hand-in-hand to improve students' academic and social/emotional skills. The program, through which 65 tutors worked with 202 students last school year, is administered by the Celebration of Life Community.

Common Ground Health – Healthi Kids

Healthi Kids works with parents, students, teachers and community members to advocate for physical activity and unstructured play through daily school recess, more inviting play spaces in neighborhoods and safer walking routes to schools. Responding to the campaign's advocacy efforts, the Rochester City School District adopted a mandatory daily recess policy and banned the withholding of recess as punishment. In addition to active play, Healthi Kids works to improve meals and snack offerings in schools, increase participation in the Summer Food Service program and expand the availability of fresh fruits and vegetables in corner stores. The initiative also encourages breastfeeding, which research has shown lowers children's risk of becoming obese later in life.
