What makes LaToya exceptional is her ability to build trusting relationships with her students, thus creating a culture where students feel safe to take risks with their learning. LaToya is firm, but fair, holding expectations high for every student with no exception. She strongly believes that the best classroom management plans start with strong, engaging lessons. LaToya has immersed herself in the Leadership Academy community, supporting all students and school initiatives. Her supervisor considers her a gift to the Leadership Academy, and to the Rochester City School District.
