Matt is an outstanding first-year intern who has demonstrated excellence in his ability to establish an educational environment that is conducive for learning, providing students with engaging instruction through an informed teaching lens. His level of commitment to his students, and his extracurricular involvement in the school and academic community exceeds expectations. He has demonstrated the ability to reflect upon his practices by questioning himself, and opening up conversations to obtain the feedback he needs as he works to acquire and improve upon his skills. Those who work with him often comment positively on how professional he is, how well-spoken, and well-informed. Matthew Battaglia is highly respected by members of his school community, and an asset to the profession.
