

SCHOOL-PARENT COMPACT

John James Audubon School #33 staff and the parents of the students participating in activities, services, and programs funded by Title I, Part A of the Elementary and Secondary Education Act (ESEA) (participating children), agree that this compact outlines how the parents, the entire school staff, and the students will share the responsibility for improved student academic achievement and the means by which the school and parents will build and develop a partnership that will help children achieve the State's high standards.

This school-parent compact is in effect during this school year.

School Responsibilities

John James Audubon School #33 will:

Provide high-quality curriculum and instruction in a supportive and effective learning environment that enables the participating children to meet the State's student academic achievement standards as follows:

School 33 participates expanded learning days. Our goal is to provide high quality learning time and strive to achieve this through focusing on Essential Elements of Quality Expanded Learning Day Programs: Focused school-wide priorities; Rigorous; Differentiated; Frequent Data Cycles; Target teacher development; Engaging enrichment.

John James Audubon School 33 will:

1. Involve parents in the planning, review, and improvement of the school's parental involvement policy, in an organized, ongoing, and timely way.
2. Involve parents in the joint development of any school wide program plan, in an organized, ongoing, and timely way.
3. Hold an annual meeting to inform parents of the school's participation in Title I, Part A programs, and to explain the Title I, Part A requirements, and the right of parents to be involved in Title I, Part A programs. The school will convene the meeting at a convenient time to parents, and will offer a flexible number of additional parental involvement meetings, such as in the morning or evening, so that as many parents as possible are able to attend. The school will invite to this meeting all parents of children participating in Title I, Part A programs (participating students), and will encourage them to attend.
4. Provide information to parents of participating students in an understandable and uniform format, including alternative formats upon the request of parents with disabilities, and, to the extent practicable, in a language that parents can understand.
5. Provide to parents of participating children information in a timely manner about Title I, Part A programs that includes a description and explanation of the school's curriculum, the forms of academic assessment used to measure children's progress, and the proficiency levels students are expected to meet.
6. On the request of parents, provide opportunities for regular meetings for parents to formulate suggestions, and to participate, as appropriate, in decisions about the education of their children. The school will respond to any such suggestions as soon as practicably possible.
Provide to each parent an individual student report about the performance of their child on the State assessment in at least ELA and Mathematics. .
8. Provide each parent timely notice when their child has been assigned or has been taught for four (4) or more consecutive weeks by a teacher who is not highly qualified within the meaning of the term in section 200.56 of the Title I Final Regulations.
9. Hold parent-teacher conferences (at least annually in elementary schools) during which this compact will be discussed as it relates to the individual child's achievement.
10. Provide parents reasonable access to staff. Specifically, staff will be available for consultation with parents as identified in the Parent Handbook.

11. Provide parents opportunities to volunteer and participate in their child's class, and to observe classroom activities, as identified in the Parent Handbook, website, and via PTA.

Parent Responsibilities

We, as parents, will support our children's learning in the following ways:

1. Monitoring attendance, behavior, and academic progress.
2. Making sure that homework is completed and return the Reading logs.
3. Monitoring amount of television, video, and social media their children watches and participates in.
4. Participating, as appropriate, in decisions relating to my children's education.
5. Promoting positive use of my child's extracurricular time.
6. Staying informed about my child's education and communicating with the school by promptly reading all notices from the school or the school district either received by my child or by mail and responding, as appropriate.
7. Serving, to the extent possible, on policy advisory groups, such as being the Title I, Part A parent representative on the school's School Improvement Team, the Title I Policy Advisory Committee, the District wide Policy Advisory Council, the State's Committee of Practitioners, the School Support Team or other school advisory or policy groups.

Student Responsibilities

We, as students, will share the responsibility to improve our academic achievement and achieve the State's high standards.

Specifically, we will:

1. Do my homework every day and ask for help when I need to.
2. Read at least 30 minutes every day outside of school time.
3. Give to my parents or the adult who is responsible for my welfare all notices and information received by me from my school every day.

Thank you for entrusting your child to us. We look forward to working with you and your child.
