  - Desks will be cleaned in between each serving.
  - Hands will be washed/sanitized before and after lunch.

Special Subject Teachers
- Specials including Art, Physical education, music, library, instrumentals, will be delivered synchronously and in-person. Special subject teachers will report to work, in-person, on Mondays and Tuesdays and report to their assigned class outlined in the master schedule. Scholars who are “remote only” will participate via Zoom class.
  - Note: Specials will be held in the classroom and/or outdoors (weather permitting).
  - Physical Education classes will be held in the gym. Teachers are expected to escort their class to the gym unless an accommodation has been put in place.
  - Art will be held in the art room. Teachers will need to escort the scholars assigned to the art room.
- Scholars must remain 6 feet apart at all times.
- No sharing of equipment whatsoever. All equipment (if used) must be cleaned between classes and use.
- Library teacher can bring a selection of books to the classroom for scholars to choose from.
  - All materials used will be cleaned between each scholar use.
- All materials must be cleaned between each scholar’s use.
- Twelve feet of space is required in all directions in areas where aerobic activities (gyms), projecting the voice (singing), or playing a wind instrument take place.

Teaching Materials
- Staff should consider creating a bin or cart with teaching materials (teachers guides, plan books, etc) that can be easily mobile.
  - Principal will provide carts for special subject teachers on a first come first serve basis based on availability.
- Access to classrooms will be limited to Monday and Tuesday in order to minimize risk/exposure and for deep cleaning to occur.

Social Distancing Classroom Plans:
- Classroom Seating:
○ Scholar’s desks must be 6 feet apart (side by side), in rows and no more than 12 desks in a classroom.
○ All scholars should be facing forward.
○ Scholars are only allowed to work at their designated space all day.
○ Scholars will not share any materials.

Safety Drills:
- Fire and lock down drills - Must still be conducted - staff should plan for social distancing measures.
Evacuation Drills: Staff and scholars will follow the evacuation plan in the Townson Handbook and posted in the classroom. When outside of the building, classes will follow social distancing. Each classroom will have an assigned space.

Lockdown Drills: Staff will follow lockdown drill guidelines. Scholars and staff must wear masks and move to the designated corner of the room. All scholars should face forward while waiting to avoid face to face contact.

Daily Supply Inspection:
- Cleaning and Disinfecting- all areas of the school will be cleaned daily. Spray bottles will be available for staff members to utilize.
- Supplies must be inspected daily. Supplies to be inspected include: face covers, tissues, hand hygiene materials (i.e., soap, paper towels, hand sanitizer) and cleaning supplies (i.e., disinfectant, paper towels, general purpose cleaner). Supply quantities could limit the ability of a building to stay open. It is important that low supply amounts are reported immediately.
- Mike Rayam, head custodian, will create a plan for daily inspection of supplies.
- Scholar Belongings:
  - Scholars’ personal belongings will be kept in scholar cubby/closet space. Scholars are allowed to put away or retrieve their belongings one at a time.
  - Scholar's instructional belongings will be stored in individual bags in cubby/bin when scholars are not in-person.

Communication:
- Information will be communicated, in multiple languages, with families in January 2021.
- Weekly/ Monthly updates will be shared with families through Facebook, Twitter, Class Dojo, robocalls, and newsletters.
- Virtual SBPT Meetings to discuss Reopening Procedures and policies will be held on January 6th. Virtual parent/caregiver meetings will be held on January 27th.

School Schedules:
- To minimize disruption to scholar’s schedules, all staff will adhere to the master schedule. Request for changes need to be submitted to the Principal.

Social-Emotional Learning
- Our school acknowledges the correlation between academic learning and social-emotional and mental health needs of students. We recognize that if scholars are not feeling safe and secure - physically, socially, and emotionally - they cannot optimize their learning. Therefore, we remain committed to attending to the social-emotional and mental health needs of our scholars under all learning circumstances.
● Classroom teachers will maintain a positive, supportive, and respectful learning environment in all settings. Time will be allocated for teachers to facilitate class meetings and explicitly teach leadership habits utilizing The Leader in Me curriculum resource to provide social emotional learning.

● Administrators and all members of the Social-Emotional Team (Administrators, counselors, social workers, school psychologists, school nurse, center for youth, and behavior specialists) will continue to support individual scholars, teachers, and families during periods of remote learning.

Attendance and Chronic Absenteeism

● Scholars must attend instruction daily, even when that instruction is being provided in a remote learning environment. Each teacher will take daily attendance for each class every day at the elementary level by the child’s teacher. Teachers and scholars are expected to engage in substantive daily interaction (teacher to scholars and scholars to teacher).

● Our Building Attendance Team will support teachers and families relative to remote/hybrid learning protocols and expectations, including regular attendance and work completion.
