School 52 Families,

Happy New Year! We hope you all had a restful winter break with your family. We are so happy to see the student's smiling faces this week.

Our January Book of the Month is Beatrice's Goat written by Page McBrier and Illustrated by Lori Lohstoeter! Based on a true story, this heartwarming picture book shows how one gift changed the fate of a poor Ugandan family. The character trait for this month is work ethic. Here is the link to the story read aloud on YouTube :

Check out our November students of the month listed on our School 52 Website. They exemplified the character trait of bravery.

Making Resolutions Together

Try to sit down with your kids and, together, pick maybe one or two goals they want to set as their New Year's resolutions. If it's too overwhelming to think of them as resolutions, then just talk about them as goals and make it fun.

- I'll try to be friendly to kids who may have a hard time making friends by talking with them and inviting them to join activities.
- I will tell an adult about bullying that I see or hear about to do what I can to help keep school safe for everyone.
- I will try to save time to read for fun.
- I will try to find a physical activity (like playing tag, jumping rope, dancing or riding my bike) or a sport I like and do it at least three times a week!
