School 52 Families,

Hope you all are staying warm as Winter finally feels like it has settled in. The second semester of school has come to an end on Friday and report cards will be coming home next week.

February is Black History Month and the character trait is leadership. The book of the month is Trombone Shorty by Troy Andrews and illustrated by Bryan Collier.

This read aloud is an autobiographical tale of a young man who started making “musical gumbo” at age 4. Here is the link for the read
