School #52 Families,

Today is a chilly first day of Spring! I know we are all eagerly awaiting the warmer weather and students are looking forward to outdoor recess!

We will be rescheduling the Rollerskating party for this Friday. The new date will be April 20th. We hope to see you all there!

Last week our school lost a dear member of our staff. Ms. Wideman was the parent liason and friend to all 52 community! Her impact on our school was immense and we all feel honored that she shared over 17 years of her life with us. The link to her services this week can be found here:
