School #52 families,

What an amazing turn out we had at School 52's Open House! Families enjoyed a scavenger hunt to visit classrooms around the building and met many special subject teachers while enjoying snacks and getting new winter attire. Thank you to all our new members of the PTO who signed up to support our student's this school year.

PARENT REMINDER

Our PBIS event for students earning "Dragon Dollars" for positive behavior is 10/27. School Picture Day is scheduled for 10/28. Please continue to visit our school website for possible updates or changes.

Inspire reading by filling your home with reading materials

One of the most effective ways to get your child to read is to surround him or her with a wide variety of reading material. In addition to filling your home with books, magazines and newspapers:

- Let your child own some books. It's great to check out books from the library. But owning a few books can foster a sense of pride about reading in your child. You can find great deals on used books at library fundraisers, yard sales and thrift stores.
- Organize reading materials in containers, such as baskets or magazine racks. These can fit in small spaces, such as next to beds, couches and tables. They can even go in the car.
- Create a special reading spot in your child's bedroom. Provide good lighting. At bedtime, say something like, "You're old enough to stay up 15 minutes longer to read. Or, you can turn off the light at the same time as always. It's up to you." Your child will probably choose to read.

"The more that you read, the more things you will know. The more that you learn, the more places you'll go." — Dr. Seuss, I Can Read With My Eyes Shut!
