School #52 Families,

Fall is here! Please have your child dress appropriately for changing weather!! We are still going out for recess as weather permits. Remind your child to use the sidewalks when arriving and dismissing from the building. The front lawn was recently seeded and grass is often very wet in the morning.

Students are looking forward to our first PBIS event, Craft & Snack. Students are earning 'dragon dollars' from teachers for making appropriate choices in the classroom and at school. They will use 25 "dragon dollars" to attend this fun event where RESPECT is the character trait which will be focused on. Students will do a craft & snack associated with September's book of the month, Only One You, by Linda Kranz. Here is the read aloud link:
