School #52 Families

We hope everyone had an amazing weekend with their families celebrating Mother's Day. The weather has been gorgeous and students have been enjoying having recess and P.E. classes outside.

Fourth graders had a memorable field trip to Genesee Country Village & Museum last week. They explored a 19th-century Historic Village and how life was in Colonial times.

Thank you to all who participated in the PTO's - DIY Sandwich Dinner last Thursday. Upcoming events for students were discussed. If you would like to be included in our school's PTO and future events please reach out to your child's teacher and check our School 52 website for important dates.

Important Dates:

5/15 Half day for students

5/16 Superintendent's Conference Day (no school for students)
