Dear School #52 Families,

I hope families had an enjoyable Spring Break and you were able to experience the Solar Eclipse with your child on Monday.

Teachers are working hard with students to finish off the school year strong. It is hard to believe that we only have only a few months of school left...the schoolyear is flying by!

Grades 3, 4 and 6 will be taking their ELA New York State test this week on the 10th and 11th. For more information:

Visit the school webpage for exciting opportunities, such as Camps, Sports Programs, Family Activities and our new School 52 spiritwear!

Spring Is In The Air

Does the warm weather make you want to go outside? Below are some things you can do with your child to enjoy the nice weather and still practice math!

- Set up empty plastic bottles labeled 1–10, then roll a ball to see how many you can knock down. Add the numbers of the knocked over bottles to get your score.

- Little ones love this game and they practice number recognition! Fill and label water balloons 1–20. Draw the numbers with sidewalk chalk on the sidewalk. Have the child pick up a balloon and find the matching number and make a splash!

- Child draws a flower with 10 petals. Write a number in each petal. In the center, write a number to multiply/add/subtract by.
