Q3 What might help you get the most out of our Mentor Forums?

Answered: 93 Skipped: 17

#	RESPONSES	DATE
1	collaboration with others	2/5/2019 11:40 AM
2	share out sessions, open forum to discuss situations etc.	2/5/2019 11:35 AM
3	I liked when we were all using a common resource. Having a newer released text that everyone can read and discuss brings fresh ideas, reaffirms what we know and challenges us as a group to grow.	2/5/2019 8:48 AM
4	I think it would be helpful to have various people team up for discussions. For example, have a veteran mentor with a lot of experience team with a new mentor to have the opportunity to ask questions and learn from each other, or part time release mentors meet together to discuss questions/concerns.	2/5/2019 8:17 AM
5	Prior notice about the amount of time allotted with our mentor networks would have allowed us to bring laptops and accomplish more.	2/4/2019 10:11 PM
6	situations and examples to read/view and discuss together.	2/4/2019 3:16 PM
7	-provide more time to ask questions/process information	2/4/2019 2:54 PM
8	I really liked reading a book and discussing it.	2/4/2019 2:24 PM
9	I think a chance to meet with other mentors at the level (primary, intermediate, high school) to hear concerns, how they schedule interns and still prepare for their own instruction.	2/4/2019 11:51 AM
10	Last meeting was perfect.	2/4/2019 11:14 AM
11	More of the same	2/4/2019 11:04 AM
12	Nothing I always walk away with something from the Mentor Forums.	2/4/2019 9:49 AM
13	Continuing to work with mentor groups by subject.	2/4/2019 9:45 AM
14	continue to have time to meet with network and other teachers in the same area as me	2/4/2019 9:20 AM
15	I was able to hear good ideas from others.	2/4/2019 9:17 AM
16	time to collaborate	2/4/2019 8:50 AM
17	I really enjoy collaborating with other Mentors and understanding how we can best help our Interns.	2/4/2019 8:37 AM
18	More time to work on our project	2/4/2019 8:27 AM
19	too long for the rotation	2/4/2019 8:13 AM
20	I saw a lot of overlap with what people wanted to do in their groups. Several were talking about making a googledoc area and uploading useful items. Seems like a lot of overlap.	2/4/2019 7:49 AM
21	not much else	2/4/2019 7:45 AM
22	continued time to connect at the beginning	2/4/2019 7:24 AM
23	I always enjoy having time at our tables with our colleagues to discuss issues in mentoring. I enjoy being able to sit with other psychologists rather than teachers.	2/4/2019 5:13 AM
24	I might get more out of the forums if it expanded my understanding of important mentor skills and concepts. I would like to hear mentors reflect on their own practice and provide support.	2/3/2019 10:37 PM
25	Continued time to collaborate	2/3/2019 10:35 PM
26	The ongoing conversations.	2/3/2019 10:08 PM
27	bringing laptops to upload, print, share and access information right then and there.	2/3/2019 8:27 PM
28	Don't know.	2/3/2019 8:24 PM

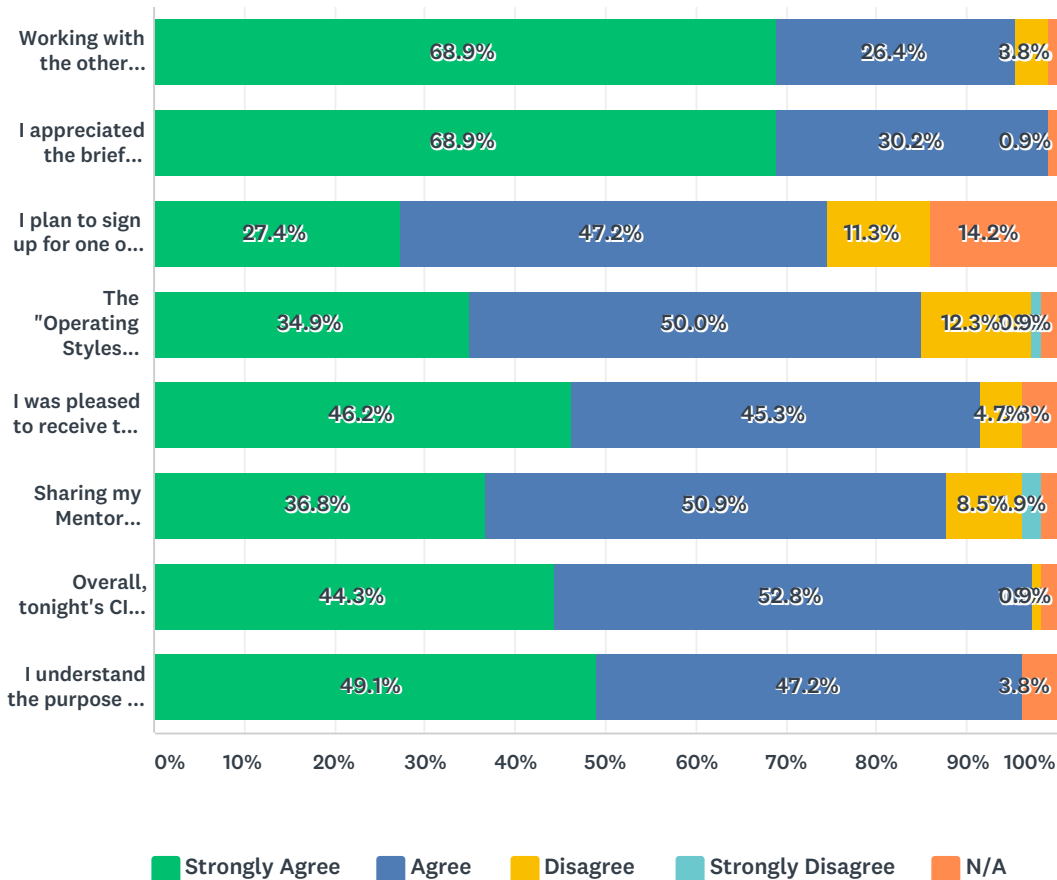

29	I think it's also helpful to collaborate with mentors who are more experienced than I am.	2/3/2019 8:12 PM
30	The forums are effective. I think occasionally adding outside speakers might offer some variety.	2/3/2019 7:54 PM
31	They have been very valuable, and I appreciate that they have been responsive to our input and requests.	2/3/2019 6:08 PM
32	I like the short presentations of information followed by time to talk about it with your group. At the end of the day, I do better learning and engaging when the information presented comes in shorter chunks.	2/3/2019 5:20 PM
33	Really loved it when you did some role playing with a struggling intern for us to watcj	2/3/2019 4:56 PM
34	What if we had some time to problem solve with our table each session. Mentors could send in real life problems to you and maybe we could pick a few each time and help problem solve how we would handle the situation. I am sure we all face many of the same challenges and it would be beneficial to hear what others do. Status Report time: Time to talk with our table and go section by section of the rubric. Discuss what each of our interns is doing well or maybe not so well. I think it would help us write our status reports. ???? maybe	2/3/2019 3:41 PM
35	Mentors sharing success stories or problems based on specific criteria.	2/3/2019 3:17 PM
36	More time for interaction as in #2 would be very welcome. Perhaps even to discuss specific prompts such as difficult situations or interns that aren't making it.	2/3/2019 2:58 PM
37	-Sharing what's working -Discussing the struggle of reaching a mentee -Relationship Model (Building confidence and trust)	2/3/2019 2:00 PM
38	Less time listening as a large group, difficulty to hear as there are many side conversations	2/2/2019 12:15 PM
39	I appreciate having time with other mentors to discuss issues/concerns with interns and bounce ideas off other people (how would you deal with this situation?).	2/1/2019 3:23 PM
40	I like the format. Working together really helps. I love the books - its a great resource and since we all have them we can bounce it off of each other.	2/1/2019 1:12 PM
41	Listening to other mentors tell of a good experience they are having this year.	2/1/2019 12:57 PM
42	We might be asked what we need more help/work/attention to during the year. Feedback from the survey can help facilitate this. Perhaps getting together with similar minded mentors regarding issues/concerns/tactics/ideas/best practices during mentoring can help.	2/1/2019 12:22 PM
43	none, thank you for the time with our networks, that is most important for me.	2/1/2019 9:22 AM
44	I liked the book that was shown towards the end of the forum that had all these ideas of questions to ask when encountering different situations.	2/1/2019 9:03 AM
45	More specific work time with content area mentors	2/1/2019 8:20 AM
46	I would like to sit with once or have time in the agenda to meet with the mentors in my building. I never get to see them and I think it would be beneficial for me to talk to them specifically about mentoring.	1/30/2019 9:04 AM
47	I would have brought my laptop and resources for my mentor network if I knew we had 45 minutes to work	1/29/2019 2:04 PM
48	All was good.	1/29/2019 1:28 PM
49	separate locations/meeting times for small mentor groups	1/29/2019 1:15 PM
50	understanding more about what's going on in the district so I can answer my intern's questions about being in a school undergoing receivership.	1/29/2019 1:02 PM
51	The time allotted for us to exchange ideas and catch up on what progress we have made was invaluable.	1/29/2019 12:48 PM
52	Continued discussion with network team	1/29/2019 12:10 PM
53	not sure	1/29/2019 11:34 AM
54	Letting the group have their network interaction at the beginning of the session lets everyone decompress, settle in and get focused. i think it leads to better participation in the whole group activity/instruction/discussion later in the meeting.	1/29/2019 11:29 AM
55	Looking at exemplar status reports and interacting in our mentor circles.	1/29/2019 10:44 AM

56	The format used yesterday withing the two hour time block seemed to work well.	1/29/2019 10:04 AM
57	Not sure.	1/29/2019 9:10 AM
58	actual examples of intern concerns and issues to discuss as a group	1/29/2019 9:06 AM
59	Somehow trying to make sure our entire mentor network is present.	1/29/2019 9:02 AM
60	I would like the opportunity to take time during the forums again to talk with my mentoring network at the start of the forums.	1/29/2019 8:59 AM
61	Forums specific to my discipline	1/29/2019 8:55 AM
62	The time allotted for professional discussion is maybe too long. As a first year mentor with less experience others at my table have assumed lead roles, and when they are not present or leading discussion the group is side conversations, some professional, some personal, and like free time. Adults, like students when left to their devices, will check out, disrupt, etc... As a new mentor I assumed that the food and early socialization was a settling in time and was guilty myself. I did like how presenters went around and subtly reminded us that we should be working on our network goals.	1/29/2019 8:52 AM
63	Time working with my team.	1/29/2019 8:50 AM
64	continued time to focus on our goal	1/29/2019 8:45 AM
65	I would prefer to see the forum organized in the construct of Monday's meeting.	1/29/2019 8:32 AM
66	It's difficult when a group is created to work together and when we convene some members are absent. Additionally, some of us were in attendance at the onset of the group, so things tend to get a little harried and discombobulated.	1/29/2019 8:30 AM
67	I felt there was too much down time, people were talking about everything else, felt like a waste of time. I think meeting and going over specific issues is always helpful but the book circles are not helpful right now, when there is so much other stuff demanded of teachers.	1/29/2019 8:23 AM
68	Anything that really helps strengthen our work with our interns!	1/29/2019 8:23 AM
69	Collaborative group work.	1/29/2019 8:20 AM
70	Continued less structured time to talk with colleagues about any issues that we may be having and to share how things are going so far this year.	1/29/2019 8:19 AM
71	N/A	1/29/2019 8:06 AM
72	Well, having food has been wonderful! the 2 hour sessions works well too. Having the homework spelled out ahead of time has been very helpful too. I would continue these practices.	1/29/2019 7:51 AM
73	We could have been better prepared to make the most of our mentor network time.	1/29/2019 7:47 AM
74	meeting and talking with other mentors	1/29/2019 7:45 AM
75	More time for sharing ideas. Some of the best stuff comes out of informal time.	1/29/2019 7:23 AM
76	Separate the group into veteran mentors and new mentors.	1/29/2019 7:05 AM
77	Continue with open time at beginning.	1/29/2019 6:22 AM
78	Nothing . They are great	1/28/2019 10:29 PM
79	The app mentioned for videotaping	1/28/2019 10:15 PM
80	The activity that we did with the book and the qualities was very confusing.	1/28/2019 9:48 PM
81	Continue what you are doing!!	1/28/2019 8:48 PM
82	Videos of post conference meetings where mentors are using open ended questions to guide conversations	1/28/2019 8:39 PM
83	Continue to let us work within our mentor networks	1/28/2019 8:34 PM
84	Cookies....definitely cookies :)	1/28/2019 8:29 PM
85	I would like time to talk with other mentors that are doing work similar to me. Though my group consists of elementary teachers, there are others with whom I like to share resources.	1/28/2019 8:07 PM
86	More time with my cohort and other primary cohorts.	1/28/2019 7:55 PM

87	I really like this new format.	1/28/2019 7:54 PM
88	Follow up	1/28/2019 7:54 PM
89	similar to tonite a specific focus on a particular reading, section of the book, etc.- something that can frame our discussions	1/28/2019 7:52 PM
90	Keeping meeting with our subject networks.	1/28/2019 7:45 PM

1	I thought the Operating Styles and Characteristics activity was eye opening and an important reminder that we are all different and how to be cognizant of that when working together.	2/5/2019 8:59 AM
2	-more time needed to complete operating styles characteristics activity. It was too rushed.	2/4/2019 2:57 PM
3	NA	2/4/2019 8:51 AM
4	na	2/4/2019 8:14 AM
5	I did not feel sharing with other mentor networks was helpful as everyone our group discussed with was creating some type of google drive to post information on. I have tried to sign up for one of the PD's on classroom management with my intern without success. She has encompass after school or times do not match.	2/4/2019 7:59 AM
6	I like where this is headed. I finally feel like it's relevant to our particular work, and we can make strides to improve the capacity to help interns.	2/4/2019 7:25 AM
7	Walking away with reading materials/ resources are helpful to me. I like to read and process information at my own pace.	2/3/2019 8:14 PM
8	My intern as well as the teacher I support, both work after school. This does not allow them to attend the CIT PD opportunities.	2/3/2019 7:59 PM
9	The varying of activities helps keep us enthusiastic about our work.	2/3/2019 6:09 PM
10	Our mentor network is strong, we meet monthly and have really worked to create and revise materials and documents for our department as a whole. I feel like each time we meet with another mentor network, we hear comments like "oh, you're doing way more than us" or "Oh my gosh- you meet monthly?". I think that the nature of our jobs and the closeness we have as SLPs gives us an advantage. Talking to the other networks did make me feel like our network was doing the right thing and on the right track!	2/3/2019 5:23 PM
11	I wish we knew we had to design a "table" to represent our network at the beginning of the evening. we could have talked about it and worked on it. Other than that....good job!	2/3/2019 3:44 PM
12	The Mentor Network is an essential piece to the on-going success of Mentoring. It gives mentors the opportunities to share and not feel alone in the sometime struggles of mentoring.	2/3/2019 2:06 PM
13	I think these sessions are always well organized. Thank you!	2/3/2019 9:16 AM
14	Having time to work with our mentor networks was a blessing! There is never enough time ;) Since we all have copies of the new text, will we be using it as a book study?	2/1/2019 3:25 PM
15	I didn't just mindlessly choose "strongly agree"; I really do! I always feel refreshed and understood at these forums. I do appreciate the books as resources and I like that we chat about them at a later forum.	2/1/2019 1:18 PM
16	The "operating styles characteristics" while interesting, was not useful this far into the program/year.	2/1/2019 12:23 PM
17	The Operating Styles Characteristics was so helpful. I didn't realize how helpful that information could be with my interns and even with applying it to other situations with other colleagues. These forums are so helpful in keeping me connected and gaining new information to use. I appreciate that some of the information is repeated like some of the basic operations (ie Mondays and Fridays are not the best for CIT days) because the reminders help. I like staying connected to the other mentors in my discipline because it builds my relationship with them even beyond being mentors. I really love the separate CIT professional developments that are being offered for interns and mentors.... I would like to get my interns to attend with me. Im working on that.	1/30/2019 9:11 AM

18	The operating styles felt like it wasn't especially useful. It was very much like a personality traits activity.	1/29/2019 1:17 PM
19	Thank you so much for the information and reminders check list!	1/29/2019 12:50 PM
20	It was a good session.	1/29/2019 9:11 AM
21	PD can be difficult for me because I coach two sports during the year, but I will attend as many as I can in the fall as I continue on as a mentor. I love the work I do with my intern, and when I attend the forums I am in awe of the professionals I am surrounded by. Very in tune educators and great people. Although, I am a first year mentor with only one intern, I am finding the experience to be extremely rewarding and am interested in pursuing a greater role in the CIT department down the road as I gain experience. I am a big believer in the work being done.	1/29/2019 9:04 AM
22	I enjoy meeting with other mentors but as a first year mentor the book circles aren't really helpful.... I'd rather spend time on logistics of what's coming up and what's expected of me and how to efficiently spend my time to complete all these tasks on top of my regular duties as a teacher.	1/29/2019 8:25 AM
23	I really enjoyed receiving the text and completing the survey helped us to discuss how it can impact our work with our interns. One really strong take away from our group was we said how so often because of our own styles we mis-read cues from interns simply because their style is different and it's important not to take things personal but to understand we all work differently under different conditions and it shows in different ways.	1/29/2019 8:24 AM
24	I am not sure that each group understood what they were supposed to present or discuss when we moved about. Some of us shared more and others seemed confused.	1/29/2019 8:23 AM
25	I think this mentor forum was very well planned and productive. I enjoyed it the most of the forums so far this year. I also like the new idea for the end of the year activity replacing the picnic.	1/29/2019 8:22 AM
26	I have already signed up for CIT PDs.	1/29/2019 7:49 AM
27	I really liked the activity about Operating styles characteristics. It helped me really look at myself and my interns approach to what we both do	1/29/2019 7:47 AM
28	Although I do like the idea of the CIT Mentor Networks we are all pressed for time. We will do most of our work through Google Share or Google Classroom of sharing lessons, activities, games, and websites that will be helpful to us and eventually organized and helpful to our interns.	1/29/2019 7:26 AM
29	Excited to begin our online platform for sharing of best practices	1/28/2019 10:16 PM
30	The food was delicious and the location is always a plus! Thank you for all the time and effort you put into planning our meetings. It is so obvious how much thought and planning both AnnaMaria and Stefan put into these forums.	1/28/2019 8:50 PM
31	Thank you!	1/28/2019 8:40 PM
32	My mentoring network and I are sharing valuable resources. I enjoyed our discussions with other networks. There's so much good happening!	1/28/2019 8:36 PM
33	I wish that all members of my group were committed to the task. Hopefully, tonight will propel them to make contributions and make use of the resources some of us have contributed.	1/28/2019 8:11 PM
34	I really find it useful to discuss our interns and their styles and process. Hearing myself describe my interns to others helps consolidate my thoughts and next steps as well as hearing feedback from others. I find this the most valuable component. It is so helpful!	1/28/2019 7:56 PM
35	I am currently participating in Crucial Conversations CIT PD! I wish I had more time for additional PDs but hopefully these will be offered again next year!	1/28/2019 7:55 PM
36	Allow for more time for activities. I didn't have enough time to complete the "Operating Styles Characteristics" with fidelity because I was rushed.	1/28/2019 7:43 PM
37	Not crazy about the activity that went along with the book, but I love the book!	1/28/2019 7:21 PM
38	Advice for interns to navigate transfer process was very helpful. Perhaps we can spend time working with our mentors on this process and making sure they make wise decisions for schools chosen and interview process. I'm not sure what that looks like, but I assume they will need help.	1/28/2019 7:16 PM

1	I enjoyed it!	2/4/2019 7:25 AM
2	It was absolutely useful for mentor network time and the information and reminder checklist which I plan on working on today. Thank you. Also, I think that the I Square 3 June day is a great idea. I will bring an umbrella in case it is too hot up there. I cannot remember if the tables have umbrellas. I look forward to the outing with my interns. Thank you for making the effort to keep the tradition going.	1/29/2019 12:53 PM
3	Other than not using the initial 45 minutes as efficiently as we could (this could be only my group for all I know), the forum was perfect.	1/29/2019 9:06 AM
4	I feel that this particular forum was probably not one of the most well orchestrated and as engaging as others. I'm not sure of the reason, unless it had something to do with the grouping and the attendance.	1/29/2019 8:38 AM
5	I very much appreciate the opportunity to work and collaborate with my team. I understand why we usually are arranged with new people and are encouraged to interact with others we do not know. However, I think last night's work tie was more productive.	1/29/2019 8:25 AM
6	I had to choose an answer, so I chose effective as I assume it was.	1/29/2019 8:07 AM
7	Tonight's Mentor Forum was great! Interesting and useful activity from the book, time to connect with our Network and good use of time "catching up" with mentor expectations.	1/28/2019 8:32 PM
8	I think the year end gathering at I-Square is a great idea!!	1/28/2019 7:56 PM

9	Great use of time with our small group work. I appreciate the well-developed activities that are somewhat stress-free after a long school day. Thank you so much for that.	1/28/2019 7:16 PM
