July 2025

Congratulations! We are delighted to welcome you to the Career in Teaching Lead Teacher-Mentor Program. You have chosen to embark on a challenging and rewarding journey that will shape the next generation of Rochester's educators.

Thirty-seven years ago, our RTA President, Adam Urbanski (inspired by the pioneering work of teacher union leaders in Toledo, Ohio) envisioned a Peer Assistance and Review (PAR) program as part of a "career ladder" that would place the professional growth of Rochester's teachers in the hands of experienced and qualified teacher leaders from our own classrooms. The Career in Teaching Plan became part of our landmark collective bargaining agreement in 1988 and has since become a respected national model of how a teachers' union and school district can work together to improve teacher retention and strengthen classroom practice.

As I begin this September as the Director of the Career in Teaching (CIT) Program, I remain deeply grateful for the outstanding work of those who came before me. Our first directors, Tom Gillett and Carl O'Connell worked hard to set high standards and build a strong foundation for CIT. Following their lead, Marie Costanza, followed by Stefan Cohen have taken that foundation and expanded it, turning CIT into one of our district's biggest success stories. In a time when only about half of new teachers in urban districts stay in the profession for more than five years, Rochester stands out with a five-year teacher retention rate of 83%. This success is a direct result of their vision and dedication. Thanks to their leadership, CIT has developed a strong network of teacher leaders who are committed to reflection, growth, and long-term impact on both educators and students.

In a true spirit of collaboration, I will also rely on you, our CIT Lead Teacher-Mentors, to maintain the high quality of our program as it continues to evolve. In the face of changing district, state, and national conditions that include many threats to our status as professionals, the work of Career in Teaching stands out more than ever as an essential model of teacher leadership, one that focuses on genuine issues of teaching and learning. With your help, CIT will remain a lifeline for our teachers, who, in turn, will be better able to nurture and support our students.

I encourage you to contact me with questions, concerns, and suggestions as you begin your work as a CIT Lead Teacher-Mentor. Your commitment to this work will help guide our newest teachers, support our experienced teachers, and will surely inspire your own professional growth. What better way to serve our students?!

Enjoy the ride!

In solidarity,

Anna Maria Leone-Tobar

Phases of First-Year Teaching

ANTICIPATION PHASE

- Begins during student teaching
- Closer to completion of student teaching, more anxious student becomes about his/her first teaching assignment
- Romanticize role of teacher and the position
- Enter profession with extreme commitment to making a difference
- Feeling is maintained through the first few weeks of school

SURVIVAL PHASE

- First month of school is hard for new teachers
- They are bombarded with problems and situations they had not anticipated
- Despite preparation and positive field experiences, they are caught off guard by the realities of teaching
- They struggle to keep up
- Become focused and consumed with the day-to-day – routine of teaching
- Little time to reflect on experiences
- Spend countless hours on schoolwork weekly

DISILLUSIONMENT PHASE

- Occurs six to eight weeks after nonstop work
- Low morale contributes to this period
- Question commitment and competence
- Teachers become ill during this period
- Confronted with many new situations: back-to-school night, parent conferences, and formal evaluations
- Classroom management is a source of distress

REJUVENATION PHASE

- Slow rise in teacher's attitude toward teaching
- Generally begins in January, winter break makes a tremendous difference
- First opportunity for organizing material and planning curriculum
- Opportunity to sort through accumulated materials and prepare new ones
- Renewed hope
- Better understanding of the system, acceptance of the realities of teaching, and sense of accomplishment help to rejuvenate new teacher

REFLECTION PHASE

- Begins in May
- Highlight events that were successful and those that were not
- Think about changes in management, curriculum, and teaching strategies for the next year
- The end is near and it is visible
- Vision of year two begins and this brings on a new phase of anticipation

PHASES OF FIRST-YEAR TEACHING

WHAT SHOULD MENTORS DO?

- Help them understand that they are normal
- Share the phases and design appropriate support
- Use appropriate coaching skills:
 - Pause
 - Paraphrase
 - Probe
- Collaborate-Coach-Consult

WHAT SHOULD MENTORS DO?

- Increase frequency of contacts
- Check on balance in teachers' personal and professional lives
- Check to ensure basic human needs are met
- Sense of belonging
- Power
- Freedom
- Fun

The Roles of the Mentor

Getting Started

If you are activated...

- ☐ Call your Intern(s) as soon as possible and arrange a meeting (see next page).
- ☐ Put together a welcome package with helpful materials and September ideas.
- ☐ Start keeping a Mentor Log, (spiral notebook), to track dates, times, and take notes of meetings, phone conversations, and observations with your intern(s), as well as meetings with administrators and other relevant information. The Log is your more “confidential” place to collect notes and evidence for your work with your Intern(s).
- ☐ Email (and, if possible, visit) your Intern(s)’ administrator/supervisor and/or building principal to introduce yourself. Continue to make contact every month.
- ☐ Open the on-line CIT Google Classroom Mentor Calendar Google Sheet (separate from the Mentor Log) at classroom.google.com. You will receive a specific link to “join” when you are activated. The on-line CIT Mentor Calendar must be updated every month. The purpose of the Mentor Calendar is simply to quantify your mentor support. Only add “substantive” contacts. Avoid any detailed description on the Google Sheet. Keep detailed notes in your confidential “Mentor Log” (green notebook or equivalent). There are instructions and tips on the calendar. You will keep this one calendar for the entire year, updating it monthly. It will be “shared” with the CIT Office automatically. Do not “Submit” the Calendar until the end of the school year. (Click the “+” sign to “Join class” and use the class code you received via email. If you have a Google or Gmail account already, you may need to click on your Google Account in the top right-hand corner and select “Add account.” Sign in using email [\[Your 7-digit ID#\]@rcsd121.org](mailto:[Your 7-digit ID#]@rcsd121.org) and your district password.)
- ☐ Create folders in Microsoft Outlook (or another email program) to save correspondence to and from your interns, administrators, and CIT.
- ☐ Create a binder or folder for each intern to keep track of the following documentation:
 - “Intern’s Self-Assessment Summary,”
 - Intern’s Contact Information and Teaching Schedule,
 - Documentation from classroom observations (including Feedback Forms),
 - Copies of all Intern Status Reports and Intern Final Reports, and
 - Notes, memos, and other correspondence to or from interns and administrators.
- ☐ Create a binder or folder for you that includes
 - CIT correspondence and materials,
 - Documentation of professional development sessions and conferences you attend.
- ☐ Prepare for the MOST REWARDING EXPERIENCE of your career!!!

Getting Started: WELCOMING NEW INTERNS

- CALL YOUR INTERNS AS SOON AS POSSIBLE! Chances are they are waiting to hear from you since most will already know about the mentor program.
- Think about setting up an informal get-together. If you have multiple Interns, you may also want to arrange an opportunity for all of your Interns to meet so they can start networking. If any of your Interns are from out-of-town, prepare a “Welcome Wagon” folder of local maps, shopping areas, places of interest, and any other bits of useful information. (Many of these brochures can be found on racks at Wegmans, Tops, or at restaurants, cafés). Consider taking your Interns on a mini-tour of Rochester.
- BE A LISTENER at the first meeting. Find out what the Intern’s agenda, goals, etc. are as a new teacher. Start thinking about ways to introduce your new colleagues to the district. Provide an overview of the CIT program and the Mentor/Intern relationship with an emphasis on the support you will provide. Make sure your Intern has a copy of the CIT Guidebook for Interns. Keep your first meeting relaxed and friendly to establish trust.
- Remember to keep the focus positive and encourage your Intern’s passion for working with kids. Project optimism and shared excitement!
- At this meeting, or perhaps at a later meeting, review the timeline and paperwork of the program. Establish clear expectations around your role as a supportive observer and provider of feedback. Show your Interns the paperwork and discuss your professional responsibilities as a Mentor as well as their professional responsibilities as Interns. Distinguish between your role and the role of their administrator evaluators (APPR). Be clear about the purpose of your note taking and record keeping. Explain your monthly contact with administration and discuss confidentiality and the role of the program director.
- Once your Interns have a clear understanding of your role, focus on getting ready for the school year. You might use the “Intern Self-Assessment” as a guide to your discussion. New teachers received a copy of Welcome to Teaching: An Illustrated Guide to the Best Profession in the World (Fisher & Frey, 2024). Perhaps select a chapter or two to review together or share other articles or links to discuss.
- Review your Intern’s plan for the first day of school. Stress the importance of positive expectations, relationship building, rituals and routines. You may wish to create a start-up packet of ideas, activities, checklists, and “getting to know you” exercises that your Intern can use for the opening of the school year.
- Share curriculum guides, Standards, templates, e-Learning resources, and other valuable internet links.
- Consider putting together a binder for your Interns to help them stay organized with record keeping. Perhaps provide them with a notebook for recording suggestions, questions, lists, and ideas.
- Complete the on-line CIT Teacher Data Google Form for each Intern. Find the link at the CIT Website “Mentor Resources” page.
- Remind your Intern about opportunities for Tuition Reimbursement. More information at the CIT Website “Tuition Reimbursement” page.
- Acclimate your Interns to our school district. Meet your Interns in their classrooms and spend some time helping them set up and decorate. Make sure posted expectations and other “silent reminders” are in place. Help locate equipment. Provide your new teacher with some supplies such as stickers, post-its, thank-you notes, etc. Help your Intern set up a plan book, PowerTeacher grade book, email account, etc.

Any steps you take in welcoming your intern(s) will build a positive collegial relationship as you move through the year.

Many of these early efforts on your part will leave a lasting impression!

Building Trust

Trust is the foundation of a successful mentor~intern relationship.

“Supporting someone willing to make changes, guiding them toward stretching and improving, giving them useful feedback, and otherwise jumping into their life requires a high level of trust from both parties.”
(Barkley, 2010, p.40)

“Trust means saying what you’re going to do and then doing it.” (Barkley, 2010, p.47)

TIPS for building a TRUSTING RELATIONSHIP with your interns

- ☐ Communication, Clear and Consistent
- ☐ Say what you are going to do and then do it. Reliability
- ☐ Listening; Attending fully
- ☐ Support; provide what an intern needs (provide the “Lifelines!”)
- ☐ Be clear about your role
- ☐ Provide Emotional Safety
- ☐ Preserve confidentiality

He who does not trust enough,
will not be trusted. --Lao Tzu

OBSTACLES TO A TRUSTING MENTOR-INTERN RELATIONSHIP	POSSIBLE WAYS TO ADDRESS
Intern feels there is no time to meet with mentor.
Philosophical differences between mentor & intern
Intern is intimidated and cautious; perceives mentor as an evaluator.
Intern does not believe he or she needs a mentor.
Personality differences between mentor & intern.
Intern perceives the mentor as another “obligation” or demand.

Confidentiality

- ☐ Trust is predicated on your intern's confidence in your ability to maintain confidentiality.
- ☐ It is your obligation as a CIT mentor to maintain confidentiality.
- ☐ Trust may take a while to develop. Be patient. Trust is difficult to force. Restrain from “prying” before the foundations of trust are established.
- ☐ You must keep personal information confidential (even when someone wants to be helpful).
- ☐ Exceptions: danger of harm to others or themselves.
- ☐ If information should be shared...
 - have intern accompany you to share the information, or
 - get intern's permission to share, or
 - inform the intern that the information is being shared.
- ☐ If you are uncertain, consult with the CIT Director.

Few things can help an individual more than to place responsibility on him, and to let him know that you trust him.
~~Booker T. Washington

Intern Praise

(Examples from "Intern Report on Mentor" and annual surveys)

- My mentor visited me every week.
- My mentor always considered my point of view.
- My mentor asked me questions that really got me to think.
- My mentor gave me many suggestions, yet didn't "demand" that I do them. She gave me room to figure out what would work for me.
- My mentor gave me a great deal of written feedback. It was helpful to be able to review her suggestions later.
- My mentor collaborated with me and brainstormed with me.
- My mentor helped me to problem solve when necessary.
- My mentor shared many materials and resources with me.
- My mentor helped me to plan lessons.
- My mentor helped me to figure out how to create a positive learning environment.
- My mentor helped me to understand how to implement the lessons we had planned.
- My mentor helped me to understand the responsibilities I have as a teacher.
- My mentor thoroughly went over the evaluation rubric and I really felt as if I understood how she and also how my administrator were assessing me all year.

Intern Complaints

(We seldom receive complaints about Mentors from Interns, but the statements/questions below have come from some Interns about their Mentors. Please don't exhibit the behaviors listed below!)

- My Mentor gives no written feedback after an observation.
- My Mentor does nothing for me: no materials, lessons, and units.
- My Mentor doesn't model lessons.
- My Mentor just "tells me what to do" rather than collaborates with me to help me figure out how to solve my problems.
- I haven't seen my mentor in a long time.
- My Mentor cancels visits frequently.
- A classroom visitation was never arranged.
- My mentor does not help with all the professional expectations.
- I don't feel my mentor is keeping my confidence.
- My mentor seldom shares with me how I am doing. I was shocked when my mentor assessed me as ineffective in some of the categories.
- Why does my friend's mentor visit her every week and I have only seen my mentor once in a while?

REMEMBER: Interns compare notes and will complain; they also evaluate you.

Tips for Helping an Intern with Classroom Environment

Refer together to the advice in Todd, Madeline, & Katherine Whitaker's Your First Year as a “Third Point.” Instead of “telling” the intern what to do, use that resource and/or cite other research to facilitate discussion, generate open-ended questions, and help interns establish rituals and routines that work for them.

The Whitakers emphasize Preparation & Structure:

ORGANIZATION

PROCEDURES AND RULES

(Rituals, Routines, & Expectations that are framed positively, conveyed clearly, taught to students, and consistently enforced)

MINDSET

(Building Relationships, High & Specific Expectations, Consistency)

Emphasize to interns that with procedures in place, you'll be better able to devote energy to instruction and building strong relationships with your students.

Domain 2: Classroom Environment

- 2a. Creating an environment of respect and rapport
- 2b. Establishing a culture for learning
- 2c. Managing classroom procedures
- 2d. Managing student behavior
- 2e. Organizing physical space

You should also use the Danielson rubric language in Domain 2 as another Third Point:

Introduce your Interns to information about Culturally Responsive Teaching practices. (see page 32). You may wish to refer them to the Rochester Teacher Center, the RCSD Department of Equity & Inclusion, the RCSD Code of Conduct, or the work of Dr. Joy DeGruy, Zaretta Hammond, Mica Pollock, Ibram Kendi, or others.

Classroom management is not about having the right rules... it's about having the right relationships.

--Danny Steele

Along with the Whitaker's book, you may want to use this helpful set of questions with your intern: Conscious Classroom Management: Unlocking the Secrets of Great Teaching by Rick Smith

Which consequences to choose?

- 1. Be natural and/or logical
- 2. Provide some wiggle room for the teacher
- 3. Be specific and concrete

Examples of consequences:

- 1. Reminders and warnings
 - Nonverbal reminders
 - Verbal reminders
 - Nonverbal warnings
 - Verbal warnings

- 2. Actual consequences inside the classroom
- 3. When a student needs to be removed from the classroom
- 4. Behind-the-scenes efforts

Other tips and reminders:

- Have 5 or fewer classroom rules
- Work in small rewards for positive behavior
- Keep rules positive in nature
- Discuss multiple scenarios with your intern so they are not caught off guard

WHAT IS GORDON'S LADDER?

Thomas Gordon, a researcher at UCLA, has suggested five steps to illustrate what is happening to adults internally when they are confronting unfamiliar territory! It has been affectionately referred to as Gordon's Ladder.

WHY IS IT IMPORTANT FOR MENTORS TO BE AWARE OF GORDON'S LADDER?

As a mentor, it is important to recognize that the first three steps are part of the learning process. If an intern expresses guilt, anger, or frustration, help them to understand it; support them but don't take it personally. Be patient with this process. The top of the ladder is worth it!

GORDON'S LADDER

GUILT

At the first step in our learning curve, we usually experience a sense of guilt. Why am I not doing this? How come everybody else seems to know this stuff? We are caught a little off guard and feel dutifully called to be prepared. (INTERNS OFTEN EXPERIENCE THIS STAGE AFTER THE FIRST FEW WEEKS OF SCHOOL.)

ANGER

The natural transition is to turn the guilt outward. We tend to react unreceptively to a new idea or way of doing things. "My system has been working for 15 years; there is no reason to do it differently." Body language is often used to communicate this anger. (INTERNS OFTEN RESPOND THIS WAY IF MENTORS DON'T USE PEER COACHING SKILLS.)

FRUSTRATION

When we come to accept this new method or tool, we then feel frustration. "The instructor made it look easy, but I can't get it to work." (MENTORS NEED TO BE AWARE OF THE FRUSTRATION THAT THEIR INTERNS ARE FEELING WHEN A LESSON DOES NOT WORK WELL.)

SATISFACTION

Once the learning curve has been climbed, we then feel a sense of satisfaction that we can perform certain tasks on our own. (BY USING PEER COACHING SKILLS, A MENTOR'S GOAL IS TO BRING HIS OR HER INTERN TO THIS POINT.)

INTERNALIZATION

Gordon suggests that for this skill to become a natural way of doing business takes three to five years. Don't expect change overnight. (MENTORS NEED TO KEEP THIS IN MIND WHEN WORKING WITH NEW TEACHERS!)

Remind your interns that we all go through some version of these stages when faced with something new. Help them understand the feelings we experience at each stage of the learning process so they can manage these emotional ups and downs without giving up.

With your ongoing observation, feedback, support, celebration, and understanding, you can facilitate the intern's ascent up the ladder as they learn and build competence in new skills.

Using CIT Tools to Engage Interns in Learning Focused Conversations

By conducting regular classroom visits, CIT mentors build a common understanding of their interns' development. Every time a mentor visits an intern's classroom, the mentor is observing an aspect of instruction. Before a visit, the intern and mentor explore the lesson design and select an area of focus. Mentors and interns have a learning-focused conversation based on the area of focus. After the mentor and intern discuss the mentor's observations, the intern is able to reflect upon possible instructional implications. Oftentimes the reflecting conference moves back into planning a follow-up lesson or series of lessons. During a conversation with an Intern, Mentors continuously move back and forth on a continuum that slides from Consulting to Collaborating to Coaching. The most important part of the process is the rich discussion that takes place. This helps the Intern to become a reflective practitioner.

Learning-Focused Planning Conversation

(A mentor typically has this type of conversation with an intern before the lesson is presented.)

This is an interactive process and typically results in collaborative planning. It might include any of the following:

- ✚ An opportunity to clarify goals for student learning
- ✚ An opportunity to invite the teacher to talk about the lesson and how it fits in the curriculum
- ✚ An opportunity to explore the context of the lesson and what has led up to it

Sample Questions that a Mentor might ask during a Learning-Focused Planning Conversation:

CLARIFY GOALS FOR STUDENT LEARNING

- ✚ What are some of your goals/objectives/outcomes for student learning?
- ✚ What are some ways this lesson is building on your students' interests, developmental level or backgrounds?
- ✚ What are some ways assessment has guided the design of this lesson?
- ✚ How might the learning goals be connected to the Common Core standards or curriculum?

DETERMINE EVIDENCE OF SUCCESS AND STUDENT ACHIEVEMENT

- ✚ How might you assess what students know and are able to do?
- ✚ What are some ways your students might assess their own learning?
- ✚ What are some informal assessments of student learning that you might use to check for understanding and help you adjust instruction while teaching?
- ✚ What are some assessment tools that might give you the data you need to see whether or not learning has taken place?

EXPLORE TEACHING STRATEGIES

- ✚ What are some ways you might differentiate instruction to address the diverse needs of the students?
- ✚ What are some questions you might ask the students to engage them in critical thinking?
- ✚ What are some ways you might use technology or other resources to engage the students in learning?
- ✚ What are some ways you might facilitate learning experiences that promote interaction and choice?

IDENTIFY FOCUS FOR MENTOR'S DATA COLLECTION

- ✚ What are some areas of instruction that you want me to pay attention to during this lesson?
- ✚ What are some student behaviors that you want me to track during your lesson?

ADDITIONAL QUESTIONS TO CONSIDER USING IN A LEARNING-FOCUSED PLANNING CONFERENCE

- ✚ With which of the NYS/Common Core Standards is your lesson aligned?
- ✚ What are some of the objectives of your lesson?
- ✚ What are some student-centered strategies you have planned to include in your lesson?
- ✚ What are some ways you have incorporated the interests of your students into your plan?
- ✚ What are some accommodations you have made to address the different needs of your students?
- ✚ How might you relate the concepts in today's lesson to other topics the students have learned?
- ✚ What are some assessments you will use to determine whether or not the students understand the lesson?
- ✚ What might be a challenging aspect of this lesson for your students?
- ✚ Let's compare my observation to a camera. Would you like me to use a wide-angle or zoom lens?
- ✚ What are some routines or procedures on which you would like me to "zoom in" or focus?
- ✚ What are some student behaviors on which you might like me to focus?
- ✚ What are some other elements of the Learning Environment on which you might like me to focus?
- ✚ What are some elements of Instruction on which you might like me to focus?

Learning-Focused Reflective Conversation

(A mentor typically has this type of conversation with an Intern after the lesson.)

When a mentor visits an Intern's classroom, the mentor is continuously collecting data re: the intern's development. The conversation after a visit is an interactive process that will likely result in collaborative planning. It might include any of the following:

- ✚ An opportunity to summarize impressions of the lesson
- ✚ An opportunity to recall data to support those impressions and assessments (eg. the mentor might keep track of how many students were engaged at different points in the lesson, etc.)
- ✚ An opportunity to analyze the observation data
- ✚ An opportunity to synthesize learnings, draw conclusions, set next steps
- ✚ An opportunity to reflect on the coaching process, propose refinements

Sample Questions that a Mentor might ask during a Learning-Focused Reflective Conversation:

- ✚ What are some things you noticed in today's mini lesson that worked well?
- ✚ If you were to rewind today's lesson, what might you keep and what might you delete?
- ✚ What are some things you saw or heard that indicate learning was taking place?
- ✚ What are some ways you might ensure participation by more students in the discussion?
- ✚ What are some instructional strategies you might use to engage more students?
- ✚ How might you group students to maximize engagement?
- ✚ How might you assess student learning?
- ✚ How might you provide feedback during the lesson?
- ✚ What are some possible follow-up assignments/projects?
- ✚ What are some criteria that might be included in your assessment?
- ✚ How might you respond to your students' interests or experiences in your follow-up lesson?
- ✚ How might you differentiate instruction to meet the needs of all the students?
- ✚ What are some consequences you might consider giving the students who were walking around during the lesson?
- ✚ How might you utilize the assistance of your para/co-teacher?
- ✚ How might you follow-up this lesson?

Mentor Log

This is where a mentor takes notes when he/she visits an intern's classroom. Mentors use the green spiral notebook to record notes (data) about what he/she observes in the classroom. (This notebook is given to all mentors at the September Mentor Forum.) Each entry includes the date of the visit. Some visits are a few minutes; other visits are for an extended period of time. The following aspects of the visit are recorded: What's working? and What are the Intern's challenges? The mentor records questions that he/she will discuss later with the intern. More information on page 22.

*Collaborative Mentor-Intern Feedback Form (see "CIT Mentor Forms" on p. 41)

This is a tool that is used to guide a mentor's conversation. Beginning teachers typically dwell on what's not going well in their classrooms, rarely acknowledging their successes. They can easily become discouraged and overwhelmed. A mentoring conversation is an important opportunity for them to talk through their successes and frustrations with an experienced colleague, and then prioritize and address the challenges in a constructive, collaborative manner. The Collaborative Mentor-Intern Feedback Form encourages a mentor and his/her intern to begin by recognizing What's Working? By identifying specific successes and challenges, a mentor can assess the beginning teacher's practice more easily so that he/she can focus his/her support and expertise in response to the intern's specific needs. By using this tool regularly, a mentor helps new teachers establish the productive professional habits of reflection and self-assessment. Collected throughout the year, the Collaborative Mentor-intern Feedback Form serves as valuable documentation of a mentor and intern's work together, as well as the new teacher's professional growth.

*Suggestion Box (see "CIT Mentor Tools" on p. 42)

This is a tool for brainstorming with an Intern or for providing specific suggestions or resources.

*Analysis of Student Work Protocol (see "CIT Mentor Tools" on p. 42)

This is a tool that can be used when a mentor and intern are reviewing student work together. Understanding what students know and still need to learn is a pre-requisite for knowing where to go next instructionally with students to take them to proficiency. This tool was developed to help teachers understand what students know and still need to learn. The examination focuses teachers on 3 critical areas: Identification of characteristics of proficiency on an objective using a specific assignment or assessment; Diagnosis of student strengths and needs on the performance; Identification of next instructional steps based on the diagnosis. The Mentor and Intern examine 3 student papers to determine what the student knows and still needs to learn. The Mentor and Intern identify next instructional steps, including what feedback the teacher might give and what re-teaching might need to take place for the whole or part of the class.

A MENTOR-INTERN CONVERSATION

Using the Collaborative Feedback form to Guide the Conversation

(see page 23 and “CIT Mentor Forms” on p. 41)

STEP 1

Acknowledge What's Working

Mentors begin by encouraging their interns to share recent examples of successful practices. This reminds the interns of the importance of acknowledging their successes and offers the opportunity to highlight their progress since the last meeting. Sometimes interns find it hard to identify their accomplishments and the mentor might need to prompt their thinking by noting something he/she observed. When using the Collaborative Mentor–Intern Feedback Form, mentors are encouraged to use the language at the bottom of the form. This helps to become more explicit about what the intern is doing successfully and why it is working. As the mentor and intern engage in a conversation, the mentor records the intern's successes in the What's Working section.

STEP 2

Identify, Prioritize and Discuss Current Focus, Challenges and Concerns.

Mentors use the strategies learned from the Lipton Learning-Focused series of workshops to craft questions that open their interns' thinking. Interns generally set high expectations for their work and are likely to have many concerns as they begin their professional practice. Some of the most pressing challenges include classroom management, addressing the individual needs of particular students, curriculum development, instructional planning and lesson implementation (instructional pedagogy). Mentors need to take the time to paraphrase and use clarifying questions to make sure they understand the intern's concerns and establish a focus for the conversation. As the mentor and intern engage in a conversation, the mentor records any issues discussed in the “Current Focus---Challenges---Concerns” section of the Collaborative Mentor-Intern Feedback Form. When a mentor moves to the Consulting Mode, he or she will suggest a focus. When in the Collaborative Mode, the Intern or Mentor will suggest a focus. Regardless of how issues, challenges, and concerns are elicited, the mentor's task is to guide the intern in identifying a focus that is meaningful and important. If the intern has identified many challenges and concerns, the mentor should assist the intern in prioritizing or clustering some of the issues before moving into discussion or problem solving. Often, in this process, the mentor may find an opportunity to bring up and address a neglected, yet critical issue.

STEP 3

Identify Next Steps

The Collaborative Mentor-Intern Feedback Form helps guide the Mentor-Intern conversation towards positive action by asking both the mentor and intern to identify next steps. This helps encourage the intern to focus on what is doable. Developing a few achievable, short-term objectives helps create a feeling of control and increases the likelihood of success. Sometimes the intern will commit to experiment with a new instructional practice, and the mentor might agree to gather particular resources or information to support the intern. The mentor uses his/her professional judgment to gauge both the quality and quantity of next steps. The mentor also might pose a question for the intern to ponder before their next meeting.

STEP 4

Bring Closure

The last few minutes of a mentor's meeting with an intern are very important. They can help provide closure and build a sense of accomplishment. Ensuring interns have a specific focus for their development, a set of clearly articulated and manageable next steps, and a mentor's support in accomplishing them helps build trust, mutual accountability and increase the likelihood of implementation. At the end of the meeting a mentor checks off any of the activities that occurred during the mentor-intern session. They should set their next meeting date and a desired focus for that meeting. Most important of all, is for a mentor to leave an intern feeling that the time engaged in a mentor conversation was time well spent. Mentors need to make sure their interns see their growth by identifying and building upon the successful experiences they are having in the classroom and feel capable of taking the next steps needed to address issues and challenges they are facing. The Collaborative Mentor-Intern Feedback Form helps to clarify and document these important aspects of a mentor and intern's work together.

CONTINUOUSLY SETTING PROFESSIONAL GOALS

One of the most significant ways a mentor supports an intern is through the continuous establishment of professional goals. In the beginning of the year, a mentor uses this form to assess the areas of strength and in need of development as perceived by the Intern. At the end of each learning-focused conversation, the mentor guides the intern by helping to focus the intern and by asking a question that invites thinking. Additionally, after each status report is discussed with an intern, the mentor guides the intern through a process of setting professional goals. This process helps the interns to reflect on their practice, determine an area of focus and develop a collaborative plan to reach their desired goals. Defining and attaining professional goals can bring a personal satisfaction and increase student achievement. When teachers take ownership for goals, their motivation to accomplish them and their ability to self-evaluate increase.

The following is the CIT Intern Self-Assessment Tool. You should complete this form at the start of the year and revisit it throughout the year. At the end of the school year, it is useful to track growth and set new goals for the following year (see "CIT Mentor Forms" on p. 41).

TEACHER SELF-ASSESSMENT / GOALS

Teacher Name: _____		Mentor Name: _____
Grade Level: _____		School: _____
		Date: _____
To be discussed with the Intern or Professional Support teacher.
Strength	Standard (Domain)	Areas for Growth
	Planning and Preparation - Demonstrating Knowledge of Content and Pedagogy - Demonstrating Knowledge of Students - Demonstrating Knowledge of How to Set Instructional Outcomes - Demonstrating Knowledge of Resources - Designing Coherent Instruction - Designing Student Assessments
	The Classroom Environment - Creating an Environment of Respect and Rapport - Establishing a Culture of Learning - Managing Classroom Procedures - Managing Student Behavior - Organizing Physical Space
	Instruction - Communicating goals clearly and accurately - Engaging students in Critical Thinking through effective questioning and discussion strategies - Engaging Students in learning - Using Assessment in Instruction - Demonstrating Flexibility and Responsiveness
	Professional Responsibilities - Reflecting on teaching practices - Maintaining Accurate Records - Communicating/Engaging with families - Participating in a Professional Community by contributing to the school and district: relationships with colleagues, participation in school and district projects - Growing and Developing Professionally - Showing Professionalism
PROFESSIONAL GOAL(S):

TAKING NOTES

Mentors use the green spiral notebook to record notes (data, evidence) about what they observe in the classroom, and to document conferences or other interactions with their Interns. Each entry should include the date and time of the visit or contact.

Each mentor develops his/her own style of note taking, and different classroom visits and conversations will produce different notes.

When visiting a teacher at work, mentors must be intentional “active observers.” A pre-conference can establish what to look for. Keep in mind the purposes of taking notes when a mentor observes an Intern:

- Capture evidence of the Intern’s work
- Capture examples of student learning, participation, behavior, etc.
- Collect data for a learning-focused conference
- Use as “Third Point” to support feedback
- Track the Intern’s progress
- Select possible focus for ongoing work with Interns
- Collect positive examples of the Intern’s work
- Formulate questions for coaching and extending Interns’ thinking
- Document Interns’ growth for use in written reports

Mentors also take notes in conferences with their Interns, or with administrators. All relevant, substantive contacts should be documented in the Mentor Log.

Mentors also need to sense when it is appropriate NOT to take notes. When in classrooms, mentors will often need to put down their notebooks and pitch in. Aim for the right balance of documenting, active observing, and actively supporting your Intern.

SAMPLE

Collaborative Mentor-Intern Feedback Form

Name: Ashley Mentor: Maria Costanza
 Grade Level/Subject Area: ELA 7 Date: 1/18/11

Check all that apply:

☐ Analyzing Student Work	☐ Developing/Reviewing Professional Goals	☐ Modeling Lesson	☐ Planning Lesson	☐ Pre-Observation Conference	☐ Using Technology
☐ Communicating with Parents	☐ Discussing Case Study	☒ Observing Instruction	☐ Problem Solving	☒ Post-Observation Conference	☐ Other
☐ Discussing Content Standards	☐ IEP Development/meeting	☐ Observing Mentor or other Veteran Teacher	☐ Providing Resources	☒ Reflecting

What's Working:

- you have created an environment of respect/happier
- you engaged students by connecting instruction to student interest
- you facilitated learning that promotes autonomy, interaction and choice

Current Focus-----Challenges-----Concerns:

- creating rubrics that have specific criteria/explain to students
- providing models to clarify expectations
- create follow-up writing assignment

Teacher's Next Steps:

- Review sample rubrics for future assignments
- develop follow-up writing assignment regarding "Is Seeing Believing?" (persuasive writing)

Mentor's Next Steps:

- Review follow-up writing assignment
- Email sample rubrics for persuasive writing lesson
- observe writing lesson

Next Meeting Date: Thurs, January 20 Focus: Persuasive Writing
 Questions: What are some criteria that might be included in a Persuasive Writing Rubric?

The Contractual “Career in Teaching Plan”

The RTA~RCSD Contract, Career Ladder, and the CIT Governing Panel

The landmark collective bargaining agreement of 1988 established our pioneering Peer Assistance and Review (PAR) program, Career in Teaching. CIT established a career ladder that encourages professional growth and offers teachers leadership opportunities as Lead Teachers without leaving the classroom. First year teachers enter the district as Intern Teachers and receive mentor support from Lead Teachers in their tenure area (see Section 52 of the Contract).

Rochester’s CIT program is overseen by a Joint Governing Panel of six teachers selected by the RTA President and six administrators selected by the Superintendent of Schools. The CIT Governing Panel convenes about every three weeks. The Panel is charged with developing, implementing, and evaluating the policies of the CIT program.

These responsibilities include selecting Lead Teacher Mentors, overseeing their work, and making recommendations (based on mentor and administrator input) about the continued employment of Interns and their advancement to the Resident Teacher level.

Teachers typically work at the Resident Teacher level for two years (but may remain at this level for up to four years). Teachers who have received tenure from the district and earned professional (formerly “permanent”) New York State certification in their tenure area may advance to the Professional Teacher level.

Mentors are assigned one member of the CIT Governing Panel as a Panel Contact. The Panel Contact will review a Mentor’s Intern Status Reports and conduct at least one Panel Observation of the Mentor’s work with an intern. At the end of the school year, the Mentor meets with the Panel Contact to review Intern Final Reports and the Mentor’s CIT Records. The Panel Contact is also how a Mentor can provide input and suggestions related to CIT policies and procedures.

The CIT Program supports many other important functions in the district, including teacher evaluation, New York State Professional Certification, tuition reimbursement, and professional development.

Questions? Visit the CIT website: www.rcsdk12.org/CIT or contact AnnaMaria Leone-Tobar, the Program Director, at the CIT Office, 585-262-8541, anna.leone-tobar@rcsdk12.org.

Besides working with first-year Intern Teachers, CIT Lead Teachers provide several other types of support:

Professional Support is voluntary peer coaching provided to “Resident” or “Professional” teachers with the goal of improving practice.

Independent Evaluation (formerly Peer Review) is provided by mentors who are Teachscape certified to evaluate colleagues using the Framework for Teaching (Danielson) rubric as part of APPR.

Intervention Support is voluntary peer coaching designed to “offer all available resources to help improve the performance of experienced teachers who are having serious difficulties in the performance of their professional duties.”

Mentor Timeline for INTERN Paperwork/Contacts

August

- On the day that you are activated, contact your Intern to introduce yourself and set up an informal meeting (see page 8).
- Make sure your Intern has a copy of the CIT Guidebook for Interns and Teachers Requesting Professional Support.
- Email the principal to introduce yourself and to find out who evaluates your intern. If it is not the principal, email that administrator to introduce yourself and provide contact information to him/her. Plan to email the principal and evaluator monthly to share positive news about your intern and to inquire about any concerns that require support.
- Start using your spiral notebook Mentor Log to record notes about contacts, meetings, conferences, observations, etc.
- Open the on-line CIT Google Classroom Mentor Calendar Google Sheet (separate from the Mentor Log) at classroom.google.com. This on-line CIT Mentor Calendar is automatically shared with the CIT Office and must be updated every month. Use it to roughly quantify substantive mentor contacts.
- Continue informal meetings with your Intern. Project optimism and shared excitement! Review the timeline of the program.
- Establish clear expectations about your role as a supportive observer and provider of feedback. Show your Interns the paperwork and discuss your professional responsibilities as a Mentor as well as their professional responsibilities as Interns.
- Use peer coaching skills such as pausing, paraphrasing, probing; open-ended questions; listen more than tell. (ONGOING.)

Late August/early September

- Once relationship is established, complete the on-line CIT Teacher Data Google Form with information about your Intern.
- Make sure your intern has the Teacher Evaluation Guide and evaluation rubrics. If not, get it from the CIT Website. Review the evaluation process and timeline thoroughly with your Intern.
- Meet with Intern to discuss the Intern Self-Assessment. (Find this and all forms at www.rcsdk12.org/CIT/Resources.) After your discussion, keep a copy for yourself. Continue to use this form periodically throughout the year to assess areas of strength and areas in need of development.
- Help Intern set up room and establish rituals and routines; obtain Intern's schedule. Share resources for planning.
- Talk about plans for the first week with Intern. (Establishing an Environment of Respect and Rapport: establishing positive expectations and relationships, getting to know students, classroom procedures, culturally responsive teaching practices, etc.)
- Begin to use the Collaborative Mentor-Intern Feedback Form to provide feedback and guide collaborative conversations to assist your Intern with lesson, unit, and long-range planning/pacing charts, student assessment data, grade book, and all other areas on the Teacher Evaluation Rubric (ONGOING)
- Make sure Intern is ready with effective lessons for at least the first full week of school.
- Continue to use peer coaching skills such as pausing, paraphrasing, probing; open-ended questions; listen more than tell.

September

- Visit Intern and assist in classroom (This is how you can see how s/he is doing and so you can get to know his/her students on an informal basis.) Collect evidence in Mentor Log. Mentors should visit new Interns weekly if possible.
- Continue to use peer coaching skills to discover your Intern's cognitive level of teaching. It is very important to ask reflective questions and to listen more than tell. If the Intern is unconsciously or consciously unskilled, it will be important to ask clarifying and problem-solving questions. This type of Intern might require more suggestions (consulting). Consciously or unconsciously skilled Interns might need more inquiry questions to "create challenge" (coaching).
- Help Intern with Emergency Sub Folder.
- Continue to use the Collaborative Mentor-Intern Feedback Form to provide feedback and guide collaborative conversations (ongoing throughout year). You must provide written feedback.
- Update the on-line CIT Google Classroom Mentor Calendar monthly to roughly quantify your mentor contacts.

October

- Continue to provide oral and written feedback during/after visits to classroom (weekly basis if possible).
- Continue to use peer coaching skills that help the Intern to reflect. If the Intern is unconsciously unskilled, shift your mentoring from coaching to consulting so that it includes probing questions that clarify. Increase the Intern's focus by asking for specific examples regarding Who, What, When, Where, How.
- Regardless of the cognitive level of your Intern, co-teach/model a lesson. (Explain about CIT sub days and make arrangements for your intern to visit your classroom to see you teach.)
- Review student work with your Intern. Perhaps use Analysis of Student Work form. Help your intern to use this information to plan effective lessons.
- Prior to your intern's formal observation conducted by his or her administrator, use the evaluation rubrics to discuss with your intern his/her progress in Planning, Learning Environment and Instruction. (Throughout the year, refer to all the rubrics to make sure your intern is prepared for his or her final evaluation by his/her administrator and your final report.
- If you are noticing signs of an intern in trouble (elements that are assessed as ineffective), contact AnnaMaria.
- Continuously communicate with your intern's administrator to identify any areas from the rubric with which s/he wants you to assist your Intern. (Continue to email or other contact monthly.)
- In early October show your Intern what a blank status report looks like. (Inform him/her that you will be completing this by early November, when it is due to CIT.)

October (continued)

Organize your notes towards the end of October to prepare to write your first Intern Status Report. You should use the rubrics and include numerous examples from your visits that support your rating.

Update the on-line CIT Google Classroom Mentor Calendar monthly to roughly quantify your mentor contacts.

November

Fall Intern Status Report: Leave 2-3 weeks for preparation and to discuss with your Intern. Your status report should reflect the evaluation rubric and include examples to illustrate the Intern's progress, strengths, and challenges. Identify and describe the focus of your work with the Intern, as well as the focus of your work going forward. Many Interns are often rated as Developing in most or all domains. This is normal. If an Intern has many elements that are ineffective, it is essential to contact AnnaMaria to conduct an observation. Many "ineffective" elements indicate an Intern in Trouble.

DO NOT SIMPLY LEAVE THE STATUS REPORT for your Intern to sign. It is important to discuss this at great length with your Intern. You may wish to use the Teacher Evaluation Guide rubrics as a "Third Point."

Make sure your Intern completes and signs the "Intern Report on Mentor." Sign and submit this with the Status Report.

Ask your Intern to share with you his or her formal observation, which was conducted by his/her administrator. If your Intern's administrator has checked the box that indicates "serious concerns", it is very important to set up an appointment with your Intern and his/her administrator to discuss the concerns. Contact AnnaMaria to let her know. Then, work on a plan of action to assist your Intern with the areas of concern.

You can schedule your CIT Panel Observation and Peer Observation Reflections. (See January-March below.)

Update the on-line CIT Google Classroom Mentor Calendar monthly to roughly quantify your mentor contacts.

December

A Statement of Concern Report should be written if any elements are assessed as Ineffective. (Make sure you have communicated any concerns with AnnaMaria.)

If your two-year term as mentor expires in June, begin to complete your Mentor Reapplication.

Continuously communicate with your intern's administrator to identify any areas from the rubric with which s/he wants you to assist your Intern. (Continue to email or other contact monthly.)

Update the on-line CIT Google Classroom Mentor Calendar monthly to roughly quantify your mentor contacts.

January-March

Set up an appointment with your CIT Panel Contact for your CIT Panel Observation if you haven't already.

Schedule a time with a mentor colleague to observe you and complete a Peer Observation Reflection and schedule a time with a mentor colleague for you to observe him/her (can be the same person) to complete your Peer Observation Reflection.

Spring Intern Status Report: See October/November instructions above. Leave 2-3 weeks for preparation and process.

Make sure your Intern completes and signs the Spring Intern Report on Mentor. Submit this with your Status Report.

If you are working with a thriving Intern that is exceptionally strong, complete nomination form for Intern of the Year.

A Mid-Year Ineffective Report should be written if more than one domain is assessed as ineffective. (Make sure you have communicated any concerns with AnnaMaria.)

Continuously communicate with your intern's administrator to identify any areas from the rubric with which s/he wants you to assist your Intern. (Continue to email or other contact monthly.)

Update the on-line CIT Google Classroom Mentor Calendar monthly to roughly quantify your mentor contacts.

April/ May

Administrator will receive Administrator Comment Form from the CIT Office.

Intern Final Report: Leave 2-3 weeks for preparation and process. Make a clear recommendation and describe the Intern's growth using the rubric as a guide. Review the completed report with your Intern and get signature. Submit the Intern Final Report as part of the Review of Records with your CIT Panel Contact (see May/June below).

If not recommending the Intern for continuation, consult with director and complete Intern Final Report by April 15.

Continuously communicate with your intern's administrator to identify any areas from the rubric with which s/he wants you to assist your Intern. (Continue to email or other contact monthly.)

Update the on-line CIT Google Classroom Mentor Calendar monthly to roughly quantify your mentor contacts.

May/June

Discuss with Intern the CIT Intern End-of-Year Self-Assessment (not submitted) to review the year's progress.

Meet with CIT Panel Contact for Review of Records (to review calendar, log, observation/conference notes, PD log, self-assessment, etc) and to submit/discuss Intern Final Reports.

Assist Intern with checkout procedures.

Guide Intern in setting PD goals based on areas in need of development as assessed from using the rubric.

Update the on-line CIT Google Classroom Mentor Calendar monthly to roughly quantify your mentor contacts.

Refer to the Paperwork Checklist and Lead Teacher-Mentor Calendar on the last page and back cover of this Handbook for important dates and deadlines.

Professional Support Mentoring Guidelines

Who can receive professional support mentoring and for how long?

Resident (Non-Tenured) Teachers may receive professional support during their 2nd, 3rd, or 4th year of teaching.

Professional (Tenured) Teachers may request professional support; contractually, they are eligible for support for up to 2 full semesters.

How does professional support mentoring differ for Resident and Tenured teachers?

Mentor Timeline for PROFESSIONAL SUPPORT Paperwork/Contacts

August/September

On the day that you are activated, contact your Professional Support Teacher to introduce yourself and set up a meeting. Refer to the Professional Support Mentoring Guidelines to understand the difference in support given to Resident (Non-Tenured) Teachers and Professional (Tenured) Teachers.

As soon as you are activated, stop by the CIT Office to pick up copies of the CIT Guidebook for Interns and Teachers Requesting Professional Support for you and for each teacher you support.

If you do not have the teacher evaluation rubric or Teacher Evaluation Guide, pick up a copy at the CIT Office or website.

Start using your spiral notebook Mentor Log to record notes about contacts, meetings, conferences, observations, etc.

Open the on-line CIT Google Classroom Mentor Calendar Google Sheet (separate from the Mentor Log) at classroom.google.com. This on-line CIT Mentor Calendar is automatically shared with the CIT Office and must be updated every month. Use it to roughly quantify substantive mentor contacts. Do not describe content of your meetings on this form.

Have informal meeting with the Professional Support Teacher to inform about procedures and confidentiality, establish the focus of your work, and work together to complete the Professional Support Intake Form. (You may wish to use the Self Assessment form as a tool as well if appropriate.) Send a copy of the Professional Support Intake Form to the CIT Office.

Complete on-line CIT Teacher Data Google Form with your assigned teacher.

Begin to have collaborative conversations with your assigned teacher based on the goals you have set on the Intake Form. Written feedback is optional, but may be useful (if appropriate, use the Collaborative Mentor-Intern Feedback Form). Use peer coaching skills such as pausing, paraphrasing, probing: open-ended questions based on need. THIS IS ONGOING.

Professional Support mentors should visit assigned teachers regularly depending on the nature of the support. If mentor contacts are resisted by the assigned teacher, please call AnnaMaria at the CIT Office.

October-December

Continue to use peer coaching skills to discover your assigned teacher's cognitive level of teaching. If the teacher is consciously skilled, consciously unskilled, unconsciously skilled, or unconsciously talented, you will be able to use peer coaching skills that help the teacher to reflect. It is very important to ask reflective questions and to listen more than tell. If the teacher is unconsciously or consciously unskilled, it will be important to ask focusing questions. This type of teacher might require more suggestions (consulting).

Continue to have collaborative conversations focused on the goals set on the Intake Form.

If appropriate, review the work of your Professional Support Teacher's students. Help your assigned teacher to use this information to plan effective lessons if that fits the goals you have set.

When appropriate, use the Danielson Framework for Teaching rubrics as a "third point" to discuss teaching practice.

Update the on-line CIT Google Classroom Mentor Calendar monthly to roughly quantify your mentor contacts.

January

Use your Mentor Log and other relevant material to fill out the Professional Support Semester Report avoiding language that could be viewed as evaluative. Be sure to indicate whether Professional Support should continue for another semester. Go over the report with your assigned teacher. Bring signed copy to the January Mentor Forum or send to CIT Office.

If working with a Resident (untenured) Professional Support teacher, set up an appointment with your CIT Panel Contact for your Panel Observation. Set up a time for a mentor colleague to conduct your Peer Observation.

Update the on-line CIT Google Classroom Mentor Calendar monthly to roughly quantify your mentor contacts.

February-April

If Professional Support continues, continue to have collaborative conversations focused on the goals set on the Intake Form (see August-September, October above).

If working with a Resident (untenured) Professional Support teacher, CIT Panel Observation and Peer Observation should be completed by March 31st.

Update the on-line CIT Google Classroom Mentor Calendar monthly to roughly quantify your mentor contacts.

May-June

Use your Mentor Log and other relevant material to fill out the Professional Support Semester Report and go over it with your assigned teacher; Bring signed copy to the May Mentor Forum or send to CIT Office.

If working with a Resident (untenured) Professional Support teacher, you may need to schedule a Review of Records with your CIT Panel Contact (to review calendar, log, PD log, self-assessment, etc).

Update the on-line CIT Google Classroom Mentor Calendar monthly to roughly quantify your mentor contacts.

Record-Keeping Tips

- ~Set up a “system” of notebooks, folders or binders to collect and organize paperwork and use your system consistently.
- ~Maintain an up-to-date log – do not fall behind! Avoid having to “reconstruct” your communications, observations, suggestions, etc.
- ~Use the “Timelines” and “Paperwork Checklist” in this Handbook.
- ~Note deadlines and reminders in your personal calendar (Status Report due, check-in with administrator, etc.).
- ~Update your on-line CIT Google Classroom Mentor Calendar monthly.
- ~Set up email folders in Outlook and use Outlook “Rules” to organize your correspondence.
- ~Provide written feedback to Intern after each visit.
- ~Complete Intern Self-Assessment with the Intern sometime in September and revisit it throughout the year.
- ~Use your log, correspondence, and Collaborative Mentor-Intern Feedback forms to prepare for writing Status Reports.

Tips for Modeling and Co-Teaching with Interns

Very often some interns are unable to effectively implement concepts in their classroom that mentors discuss with them. The mentor must develop means to increase understanding so that the intern develops confidence in trying new strategies. The intern should observe the mentor using the strategy in his/her classroom followed by the mentor using the strategy in the intern's classroom. The mentor should specifically identify the skill that is being demonstrated for the intern. (For example: building relationships with students, questioning techniques, engaging students, etc.) Co-teaching is the best approach to support how our interns deliver instruction to our students.

Here are some ways to model and co-teach:

- Intern observes mentor
- Mentor arranges demonstration teaching by expert teacher
- Mentor and intern observe a lesson together with specific focus
- Mentor and intern co-teach a lesson
- Utilize videotaping of mentor's lesson for analysis and focused conversations
- Video tape intern's lesson for analysis

The following tips for co-teaching were developed by Marilyn Friend and Lynn Cook. (Adapted)

1. One teach, One observe: More detailed observation of students engaged in the learning process can occur.
2. One teach, One assist: Mentor or intern takes on the responsibility for teaching while the other circulates through the room providing unobtrusive assistance to student as needed.
3. Parallel Teaching: Mentor and intern are both covering the same information, but they divide the class into two groups and teach simultaneously.
4. Station Teaching:---Mentor and intern divide content and students. Each teaches the content to one group and subsequently repeats the instruction for the other group.
5. Alternative Teaching: Mentor or intern takes responsibility for the large group while the other works with a smaller group.
6. Team Teaching: Mentor and intern are delivering the same instruction at the same time.

In order for the mentor and intern to effectively co-teach, they must take into consideration that planning and effective communication are essential. There should be a discussion that centers on their philosophy of teaching, learning, and discipline.

Tips for helping Interns with Co-teaching

This is a common area of need for our new teachers. We recommend working with your interns using A Guide to Co-Teaching: Practical Tips for Facilitating Student Learning by Richard Villa, Jacqueline Thousand, and Ann Nevin. Ask AnnaMaria for a copy.

The authors include a useful list of “Co-Teaching Issues for Discussion and Planning” on p. 15.

Time for Planning

- How much time do we need?
- Where will we find the time that we need?
- How will we use our time together?
- What records can we keep to facilitate our planning?

Instruction

- What content will we include?
- Who plans what content?
- How will we share teaching responsibility?
- Who adapts the curriculum & instructional and assessment procedures for select students?
- What are our strengths in the area of instruction & assessment?
- How will the content of the lesson be presented – will one person teach and the other arrange & facilitate follow-up activities, or will all members share in the teaching of the lesson?
- How will we arrange to share our expertise? How can we arrange to observe one another & practice peer coaching?
- Do we rotate responsibilities?
- How will we assess the effectiveness of our instruction?

Student Behavior

- What are our class guidelines and rules?
- Who determines the disciplinary procedures?
- Who carries out the disciplinary procedures & delivers the consequences?
- How will we be consistent in dealing with behavior?
- How will we proactively address behavior?

Communication

- What types & frequency of communication do we like to have with parents?
- How will we explain this co-teaching arrangement to parents?
- Who will communicate with parents? Will there be shared responsibility for communication with parents of students who have identified special education or other specialized needs, or will particular members of the co-teaching team have this responsibility?
- Which types of communication do we each like to have with students? With what frequency do we like to communicate with students?
- Who will communicate with students?
- How will we ensure regular communication with each other?
- Who communicates with administrators?

Evaluation

- How will we monitor students' progress?
- How will we assess and grade student performance?
- Who evaluates which group of students – do co-teachers collaborate in evaluating all students' performance, or is each co-teacher primarily responsible for evaluating a subset of students?

Logistics

- How will we explain our co-teaching arrangement to the students and convey that we are equals in the classroom?
- How will we refer to each other in front of the students?
- How will teacher space be shared?
- How will the room be arranged?
- How is paper work completed for students identified as eligible for special education?
- How will a balance of decision-making power be maintained among co-teachers?

There are several of our experienced mentors who are especially adept at the art of co-teaching. Don't hesitate to ask for assistance.

Culturally Responsive Teaching in the RCSD

Discussions about race, culture, and poverty can be difficult for new teachers. After all, they remain difficult for many of the most seasoned veterans. More than ever, teaching in an urban district demands “courageous conversations” on sensitive topics if we are to best serve our students. In Rochester, 89.8% of our students are students of color, and 79.3% are eligible for free/reduced lunch. Our students speak 87 different languages and many have limited English proficiency. The socio-economic profile of our teacher corps is quite different. Research shows the importance of acknowledging and addressing this “culture gap” in order for us to most effectively engage our kids.

We encourage you to explore these issues with your interns by encouraging them to strengthen their cultural competence:

Cultural competence is the ability to successfully teach students who come from cultures other than our own. It entails developing certain personal and inter-personal awareness and sensitivities, developing certain bodies of cultural knowledge, and mastering a set of skills that, taken together, underlie effective cross-cultural teaching. (Diller, J.V. and Moule, J., 2005)

The RCSD provides many opportunities to build this cultural competence through discussions about culturally responsive teaching, defined as “using the cultural characteristics, experiences, and perspectives of ethnically diverse students as conduits for teaching them more effectively” (Geneva Gay, 2000).

Struggling Interns

When you notice your Intern is struggling, you must continue to be supportive, but also honest in your feedback.

- Keep in mind at all times that our goal as mentors is to help our Interns fix the problem, not the blame.
- Make sure you spend sufficient time in your Intern's classroom to assist and offer guidance. Ask for help if needed.
- If you feel that an Intern is struggling, contact the CIT Director to discuss your concerns. Set up an observation time for AnnaMaria to visit your Intern's classroom.
- Be honest with your Intern, but without judgment. Identify problems, but make sure your role is one of support, and that the goal is growth. Assume your Intern wants to succeed.
- Use your Learning-focused Conversation skills in conferences with the Intern. Use specific examples from your observations and the evaluation rubric as "Third Points" to discuss your concerns.
- Frame struggles as challenges or obstacles to overcome.
- If any rubric domains rate "Ineffective," you must be honest in your November Status Report ratings.
- Avoid blame, scolding, or a judgmental tone in the report. Avoid speculation about motivation and effort. Use examples, but don't "pile on." Frame issues as ongoing work with goal-setting and next steps.
- If your concerns have surfaced since the November Status Report, or your Intern has not improved since the last Status Report, please complete a Statement of Concern.
- Find out how the Intern performed on the formal observation. If the administrator checked "Raised Serious Concern," schedule a meeting with the administrator and Intern to develop an action plan. Alert AnnaMaria.
- If your intern does not show improvement, a Mid-Year Ineffective Report should be completed and given to AnnaMaria at or before the January Mentor Forum.
- Throughout the second semester, continuously communicate with AnnaMaria about your Intern's progress.
- All CIT Intern reports are confidential and should NOT be shared with the Intern's administrator.

Some signs of an "Intern in Trouble"

Student Related

- Nervous/anxious in front of students (lacks self-confidence)
- Negative attitude toward students (blames students)
- Paces or always in motion or sits behind desk most of the time
- Students have little or no respect for the teacher, and therefore are out of control most of the time.
- Makes excuses such as: "these students are a terrible group" or "all other teachers think the same about them."
- Treats students like peers/friends rather than as caring teacher.
- Breaks down in front of students.
- Displays inconsistency in dealing with student behavior.
- Attempts at praising students seem artificial.

Teacher Related

- Does not prepare or plan lessons adequately.
- Makes serious mistakes when teaching and does not accept constructive criticism from mentor
- Is extremely unorganized
- Ignores suggestions made by mentor.
- Does not attend in-services/workshops to grow professionally and to learn pedagogy. (Believes that college education was sufficient and there's not much more to learn.)
- Takes advantage of well-intended colleagues by sending problem student to them on a regular basis
- Blames principal for lack of support (after sending numerous students to office)
- Comes in late – leaves right after school
- Has no energy for after school follow-through conferences, etc.

On the Other Side of the Coin

- Thinks everything is going just fine when it's not
- Is oblivious to discipline problems, management problems or just ignores them.
- Over-enthusiastic to the point of saturation.
- Treats students like peers and believes that it's appropriate for students to treat him/her the same
- Attends all voluntary in-services, talks enthusiastically, seems to understand but cannot put pedagogy to practice.
- Asks "why" in response to a question asked by the mentor
- Asks the mentor to teach class as much as possible, but does not observe important strategies being modeled.
- Does not feel s/he needs a mentor

Mentor Related

- Tells mentor "nothing works" – "these students are impossible"
- Is not willing to spend time with mentor, makes excuses and cancels meetings.
- Often breaks down and cries at conferences with mentor
- Doesn't contact mentor when necessary: i.e., in time of absence for an observation
- Is not a good listener when mentor is speaking –interrupts often or preoccupied
- Does not follow-through with promises i.e., handing in lesson plans, again makes excuses
- Is not willing to spend adequate time planning and practicing lessons that would improve teaching.

Statement of Concern

NOTE: Complete this document if an intern is assessed as ineffective in one or more of the elements within the following Domains: Planning and Preparation, Classroom Environment, Instruction, or Professional Responsibilities.

Intern: _____

School: _____

Mentor: _____

Date: _____

Panel Contact: _____

Describe the area(s) of difficulty: While all of the elements of the 4 domains of professional practice are related in some way, specific elements in the following areas are impacting the overall instructional practices and classroom environment.

Areas of Difficulty	Plan of Action
Domain 1, component 1b: Demonstrating Knowledge of Students
Instructional planning does not consistently incorporate knowledge of students' needs (as has been done effectively with co-teacher with small groups).	• Scaffold instruction for both students who have and have not been identified as having special needs. • Adhere to the modifications and accommodations that are listed in the IEP.
Domain 1, component 1e: Designing Coherent Instruction
Lesson plans not aligned with instructional outcomes. Needs to preview the content and the content standards ahead of time consistently to make sure there is a solid understanding of what needs to be taught in order to make appropriate accommodations for students. Need plans for whole group instruction, intervention blocks, and writing. Learning activities for whole group instruction are generally "one size fits all."	• Set aside scheduled time (weekly if possible) with co-teacher to plan and prepare each day. Co-plan all aspects of the school day, including bell work, morning meeting, whole group lessons, intervention blocks, and writing blocks. The less down time, the less you will be managing behaviors • Plan lesson activities that will engage students to access the curriculum through multiple modalities (visuals, organizers, videos, audio, movement, collaboration etc) as appropriate.
Domain 2, component 2a: Creating an Environment of Respect and Rapport
Several students in the classroom continue to be disrespectful toward each other. Avoid sarcasm with students who are disengaged or who misbehave. Avoid power struggles. Look for ways to form connections with students who display challenging behaviors.	• Engage in specific positive interactions with students. (Examples: Use the 2 by 10 strategy and/or 4:1 ratio of positive to negative interactions.) • Use restorative practices during designated morning meeting time to connect with students.
Domain 2, component 2d: Managing of Student Behavior
Avoid power struggles with students and avoid making public displays of student misbehavior when a student is making poor choices.	• Begin to use graceful exits with students who engage in power struggles (Refer to chapters and literature provided by mentor such as Cooperative Discipline, Linda Alberts).
Domain 4, component 4a: Reflection on Teaching
Must engage in honest self-reflection. Avoid blaming students or other teachers/colleagues for problems with the classroom environment.	• Meet regularly (weekly) with mentor to reflect on teaching practices and plan
Domain 4, component 4f: Showing Professionalism
Must advocate for students. Persist and follow through with students' IEPs in regards to program modifications and testing accommodations. Ensure that students are receiving mandated accommodations and modifications.	• Adhere to (and follow through on) the modifications and accommodations that are listed in the IEP. • If students are refusing their services, use proper documentation and communicate this with parents.

Summary of Actions Taken:

- Observed weekly. Conferenced mostly by phone.
- Discussed planning process and using IEP Goals in planning.
- Shared planning templates and examples of lesson plans.
- Referred to experienced special education colleagues in building for suggestions and school protocols.
- Discussed ways to differentiate and use variety of lesson activities. Suggested resources, web sites, and specific strategies.
- Modeled ways to effectively transition to new activity.
- Shared articles on restorative management strategies.

List any additional support that might be helpful for this intern.

- CIT Day to observe teachers using classroom management strategies that encourage positive relationships.
- Seek out assistance from building resources – instructional coaches, restorative discipline support staff, etc.
- Mentor will be sharing a chapter from Culturally Responsive Teaching and the Brain, by Zaretta Hammond to help repair and build relationships with some of the students in her class.
- Sign up for Classroom Management PD on TrueNorthLogic.
- Have AnnaMaria visit classroom to provide additional feedback.

Mid-Year Ineffective Report

NOTE: Complete this report if an intern is assessed to be ineffective on more than one of the elements within the 4 Domains of the Teacher Evaluation Rubric. This report is to be submitted to the CIT Director by mid-January.

Intern: _____ School: _____

Mentor: _____ Date: January 14, 2012

Panel Contact: Marie Costanza

Date of Early Warning Report: December 2, 2010

Name of Intern's immediate Supervisor: _____

Date(s) of contact(s) with Administrator: 9/25/10, 10/10/10, 11/5/10, 12/6/10, 1/15/10

Describe the comments of the Intern's immediate Supervisor regarding the Intern's performance.

Supervisor is concerned about the following:

- Little understanding of the range of pedagogical approaches suitable to student learning of the content
- Lack of sensitivity towards students
- Failure to establish routines and procedures
- Failure to communicate with parents about student progress
- Misjudges the success of a lesson

Please describe the continuing area(s) of serious difficulty and summary of actions taken by the mentor.

Joe's lessons do not focus on specific outcomes. The instructional purpose of the lesson is unclear and the directions are confusing. As a result, few students are intellectually engaged. When we have met, we have discussed ways for him to verbalize what the point of his lesson is so that his students will be able to understand what they will be learning. For example, we have viewed/discussed a tape I made demonstrating how I start a new lesson or unit plan. We spent 2 Saturdays and a CIT day collaborating on the development of lessons that actively engage his students. I have had him observe me 2 times teaching an English III and an English 8 class. Afterwards we discussed the strategies that were used that resulted in student learning. I have taught his English I class to model a way to begin a literature unit. I have suggested names of colleagues for him to observe. After video-taping one of his English 8 classes, we discussed ways that more sensitivity might be shown when responding to students. I have shared a menu of ideas regarding how to establish routines and procedures through the use of seating plans, homework box, student collector/distributor of books/materials. We worked together on setting up a parent-log book to use for organizing his home contacts. After reviewing student work together, we discussed ways the lesson might be modified so that more student learning would take place.

Prognosis/additional CIT Panel supports requested:

I have discussed the above concerns with the CIT Director. I have invited the CIT Director to conduct an observation and offer feedback to me and my intern. I plan to continue to use video tapes of my lessons and Joe's lessons to provide concrete suggestions about the above areas of concern.

Working with Administrators

CIT is a collaborative program governed by a panel of teachers and administrators. Administrators should play an important role in the development of our new teachers. As a mentor, your responsibility is to support your interns and to help them reflect and grow, but you also have a responsibility to maintain open communication with administrators while still preserving confidentiality.

- Introduce yourself immediately to your intern's principal. Find out who is responsible for the intern's evaluation and make contact with that administrator as well.
- Check in monthly with your intern's administrator to share positive news and to inquire if there are any areas of concern. Many problems and misunderstandings can be avoided by keeping lines of communication open.
- Do not share information or concerns with the administrator without informing your intern.
- You must preserve the confidentiality of the mentor-intern relationship in your dealings with administration.
- Take every opportunity to coach your intern in dealing with administrators. Don't take it upon yourself to solve any problems without your intern's participation.
- Call AnnaMaria when a problem arises with an administrator (or when a problem is anticipated).

It is essential that our Interns are observed by you regularly, and that they have opportunities to observe other master teachers. The CIT Office has a limited bank of CIT Sub Days for this purpose. These days should be well planned and purposeful. Avoid using CIT Sub Days for tasks or conferences that can be completed outside the school day. Our goal is to provide consistent support with minimal disruption to school instruction and services.

CIT SUB DAY PROCEDURE

When a Mentor requests a CIT Sub Day, there are TWO steps:

1. It is the responsibility of the CIT Mentor to complete the on-line CIT Day Request Google Form at least one week PRIOR to taking the day. The link and other information can be found on the CIT Mentor Resources page of the CIT Website: www.rcsdk12.org/CIT/Resources. You will need to know:
 - The name of the teacher who will be taking the CIT Sub Day (In other words, who will be absent?)
 - The date for the upcoming CIT Day.
 - Specify Full Day, Half Day/AM, or Half Day/PM
 - The school/work location of the teacher taking the CIT Sub Day
2. Mentors and Interns must also follow school building procedures for arranging absences.

The CIT Department does not arrange for substitutes; we only provide a budget code to pay for the substitutes.

Please make sure your intern understands and follows the procedures for obtaining a sub at his or her school. THIS IS VERY IMPORTANT!

We must make every effort to minimize disruption to school instruction and services. Advance notice is key to the smooth use of CIT Sub Days.

Be sure that your intern visits classrooms on a CIT Sub Day with intention. Observations of other teachers should be purposeful. You should assign your intern something to look for, to report back on, and/or to apply to his/her own classroom.

You can use the “Guided Observation Form” as a tool with your intern.
