Happy Almost March

Is it really possible that March will be here in a few days. It seems like yesterday when we were in meetings all summer and both excited and anxious to get started. We have all encountered some bumps and we have much refining still to do, but I am so thankful to be with each of you on this journey. Over and over when kids indicate what they love about East, the staff always comes up. I have watched great lessons and I have observed incredibly supportive adults help our youth successfully grow and navigate the ups and down of life. Our job is tough daily, but each of you are tougher. Our kids need our love, support, and guidance and they want to be able to count on us. Thank you for the undying commitment you so abundantly give to our scholars. YOU are making a difference!!

Support Rooms

We believe we now have a final schedule for both Upper and Lower School Support. Administration is planning to visit rooms this week. Please feel free to point out what is going well when your room is visited. Each room has its' own unique flavor, and we can learn from one another.
