World of Inquiry

Joshua St. Louis

As the proud Principal of All City, I am very excited to see the first publication of this newsletter. It is our goal to highlight our scholars and showcase the positive events on our campus. Over the last three semesters, All City has graduated more than 270 students. All this success could not be possible without the support of an excellent Administrative team and our outstanding teaching/support staff. Let us know what you think and stay tuned for more good news. —Armando Ramirez, Principal

Voice of an All City Graduate

Trinyece Haygood

All City helped me in so many ways. I have gone to various schools throughout my high school journey, and I still achieved my goal, thanks to All City. All City helped me figure out what was best for my future and myself. I'm looking forward to going to REOC to be a pharmacy technician and then to college for a degree in something, but I haven't decided yet. Although my schedule was half a day, all my teachers and counselors made it their business to keep me on top of my work and staying focused. As of right now, I work and take care of my responsibilities, my family, and myself until it is time for school in the summer/fall.

What students at All City are engaged in...

Mr. Nenni's Stock Market Project

Mr. Nenni's math class is completing a stock market project. Students are provided $10,000 Nenni dollars to spend on stocks. Students learn capital gain, percent gain, net profits, and a variety of particulars associated with the stock market. The project lasts for a month.

Last semester Malcolm Moore was the big winner who made $3,000 in just a month of investing. Malcolm received a prize of a large cheese and pepperoni pizza from Salvatore's. This semester the prize will be the choice of two movie tickets to Tinseltown or Greece Ridge.

What is All City?

All City High is a non-traditional program school offering students in grades 10-12 between the ages of 17-21 years old an opportunity to learn in a supportive High School environment, earn credits, and in some cases accelerate graduation. Students are able to learn in a supportive educational environment with teachers and staff who are empathetic to students' needs.

Ms. Madsen's Poets: Several students entered the Sokol Literary Awards Contest (winners will be announced mid-late March)

Blackout Poetry in ELA

Ms. Fell-Rickard, Ms. Madsen, Ms. Ramirez, and Ms. Hassall started poetry off engaging students in creating their own Blackout Poems. Students and teachers had a lot of fun with this.

"I like that you can express yourself differently. You can be creative with it. I copied a page out of my favorite book (by Barack Obama) and created my poem. I made a couple more too because I liked it a lot". -Isis Smith

Blood Drive with Ms. Dimatteo

First semester the students of All City High School stepped up once again to make to make our first Red Cross Blood Drive a success. A group of dedicated students planned the drive. Several students worked hard to recruit donors. Finally, six students stayed all day and supervised registration and the snack canteen.

Our next Blood Drive is scheduled for March 15th. Ms. Morelle and Ms. Ferris will be supervising. The drive will be in room 527.

Anyone wishing to participate should see either Ms. Morelle or Ms. Ferris.

Each newsletter a different school will be featured to showcase student contributions.
Stay tuned to see which school will be selected next.

Student Highlights

“What I like most about All City is that staff is supportive and greet me in the hallway when I come in every morning. I feel like I fit in here. I also enjoy that I am learning math that I can use in real life”.

Donovan Campbell

The Wilson Wildcats boys' basketball team recently completed a successful season and Donovan Campbell was a big part of that success. Donovan finished the regular season as the team's leading scorer and rebounder averaging 18 points per game and 12 rebounds per game. The team entered sectionals as the #5 seed. Wilson advanced to the Section V Class A2 title game by defeating the #4 seed College Prep and the #1 seed HFL before losing the Championship to Batavia. He also had the opportunity to play in the Monroe County vs Rochester City Athletic Conference senior all-star game where he was named co MVP of the game. Congratulations Donovan on a great season!
