

Who is eligible for the program? Motivated, committed and responsible young people who are between 16-24 years of age (upper age may be waived if there is a disability). In addition to meeting the age requirements, to be eligible for Job Corps, applicants must:

- Meet income requirements See Admission's Counselor for more details
- In need of a HSD or TASC, if graduated, in need of additional education or training to obtain and hold meaningful employment.
- Be a United States citizen, U.S. national, legal resident, permanent resident alien or other lawfully admitted alien.
- Not on probation or parole
- Not owe any fines or restitution to the court or have a court date pending.
- Have signed consent from a parent or guardian if the applicant is under 18 years of age.