

New Beginnings Creed

We at New Beginnings, believe we have the ability to be successful.

We all will have a fresh start to:

become part of a community, achieve academic excellence,
and build self-confidence.

We will apply ourselves by working hard, being consistent, and by taking initiative.

We are leaders; respectful, smart, and motivated.

It's OK to be an outcast, because the steps we take now, lead to a New Beginning.
