

For Immediate Release: January 30, 2023

Media Contact: Brendan O’Riordan, 585-353-6390 Brendan.O’Riordan@rcsdk12.org

World Read Aloud Day at School No. 33

Who:

Dr. Carmine Peluso, Superintendent of Schools
Beatriz LeBron, Vice President of the Rochester Board of Education
Malik Evans, Rochester Mayor
Adam Bello, Monroe County Executive
Mitch Gruber, Rochester City Councilman
Dr. Shirley Green, City of Rochester Department of Recreation and Human Services
Jaime Romeo, Monroe County Clerk
James Gilbert, News 8 Meteorologist
Stacey Pensgen, News 10NBC Meteorologist
Members of the Rochester Police Department
Members of the Rochester Knighthawks

What:

11th World Read Aloud Day

When:

Wednesday, February 1, 2023, 9:30 a.m.

Where:

John James Audubon School No. 33
500 Webster Avenue
Rochester, NY 14609

Details:

Several well-known leaders, officials, and members of the community will read to students at School No. 33 as part of World Read Aloud Day. World Read Aloud Day is celebrated globally by students, schools, and proponents of literacy in more than 100 countries. It is designed to promote literacy and the awareness that everyone has an inherent right to learn to read. The District’s Communications team will stream the event live, making it possible for students around the world to view the activities taking place at School No. 33. The event will also be recorded and offered on demand on the District’s YouTube Page.