What:

Annual Family and Community Engagement Forum

When:

Saturday, April 5, 2025, 10:00 a.m.

Where:

Loretta Johnson Middle School
200 Genesee Street
Rochester, NY 14611

Details:

The RCSD invites families to participate in the Annual Family and Community Engagement Forum. This event offers a range of activities, including a community resource fair, engaging workshops, and interactive activities for the whole family.

Attendees will have the opportunity to meet Dr. Eric Jay Rosser, RCSD’s incoming Superintendent, who will assume his role in July 2025. For secondary students aged 12-17, a Teen Summit hosted by the Student Leadership Congress will provide a safe space to share, learn, and lead. Childcare and age-appropriate activities will be available for children aged 3-11.

RCSD parent groups and community vendors will share information with families about additional services, programs, and opportunities within schools and the community. Workshop sessions for adult participants will include:

Engaging Families for Middle School Success:

- Learn about the social, emotional, and academic changes middle school students experience and ways to support them.

Bridging Home and School: A Collaborative Journey for Student Success

- Discover how families and schools can work together to help children thrive at home and in the classroom.

Multilingualism and Raising the Bar:

- Explore the benefits of multilingualism and learn strategies to support bilingual development at home while advocating for language programs in schools.

High School ELA Curriculum Review:

- Preview new ELA curricula for the 2025 – 2026 school year, meet vendors, and register for informational sessions on April 8 and 10.

Community Forum – Supporting Student Mental Health: Resources and Strategies:

- Learn about District mental health resources, strategies for well-being, and ways to collaborate with schools and the community.

The Annual Family and Community Engagement Forum will be held from 10:00 a.m. to 2:00 p.m.
