Description: A major goal of the Federal demonstration grant (2006 – 2008) for Integration of School and Mental Health Systems was to improve communications among schools, parents, students, and community mental health resources. One fundamental strategy was to ensure parents have information regarding all the support services resources which can be accessed in their child's school - all school support staff and on-site agency partners, a description of the services, a picture of the staff person responsible, and phone numbers. Monroe and East will complete gathering data and resource information, and develop resource brochures for the 2008/09 in August and September with distribution to all families with children in their schools by September 30, 2008.

Description: To assist students with their academic workload this summer, the IB program is offering an opportunity for students to participate in a series of workshops focused on Hamlet. These sessions will include analysis, discussion groups, theatrical performance, and a variety of other activities to help seniors achieve an in-depth understanding of Shakespeare's masterpiece, which is a part of their required summer reading assignment. Participation in these IB workshops is free and voluntary, but highly recommended to begin the senior school year successfully.

Description: Home visits before the start of the school year, 2008-09, to finish the paperwork needed in the registration process. The visit also allows the Preschool child to meet and interact with the teacher in a familiar setting. It is a visit to encourage the parents to be part of their child's education by attending weekly Parent Group Sessions. The visits are scheduled to match the family's availability. Hours will also be used to find, recruit, and register eligible four year olds for PreK.

Description: Work to complete a "Family Involvement Handbook" to be distributed to the Universal PreK staff. The handbook will include current research connected to activities to increase family involvement in their children's education. The educators working on this handbook developed, implemented, and are currently evaluating a pilot program implemented during the 2007-08 school year in the Rochester PreSchool Parent Program. This experience will be used to share successful family involvement activities.
