Self Advocacy	Mindful Monday! Did you know the word listen has the same letters as the word silent ? Find a place to be silent and notice what's around you using your 5 senses. What do you see, hear, smell, touch and maybe even taste? Draw a detailed picture or write 5 sentences using as many describing words as you can!	Why do your teachers (classroom, PE, music, art, library) need to use the FM transmitter(microphone) at school? Tell a family member or your Teacher of the Deaf. Draw a picture of your favorite teacher using the Hearing Assistance Technology.(HAT)	Imagine you are back in your school and it is lunchtime. You are sitting in the cafeteria and it is LOUD and you cannot hear your friend talking! Brainstorm some ideas to solve this problem. Share those ideas with your TOD.	List 2 things YOU can check (troubleshoot) if your FM or hearing aids stop working before you let your classroom teacher, teacher of the deaf or audiologist know about it. Then, if they still are not working, make sure to let someone know!	Imagine you are in the kitchen with a family member, and they say something you can not hear, which of the following responses would be best? A. Huh? B. What? C. I did not hear you, what did you say? D. Say nothing and just ignore them.
Literacy Writing	In your own words describe what the setting of a story is.	Taco Tuesday! Imagine you are eating a taco. Write down as many describing words (adjectives) as you can think of to describe the taco. What colors do you see? What does it feel like? How does it taste and what do you taste? Draw a picture of your delicious taco!	Math Problem! Read this story. Write all the number words you find. Paul has eighteen nails. He wants to use the nails to build a one shelf book shelf. The shelf will hold ten books. Paul has twenty five books, but wants more. He is excited to build his bookshelf!	Draw three pictures that represent your favorite things. These could be objects, people, or activities. Write 1 - 3 sentences about your pictures and why they are your favorite!	Think about... 3 things you learned this week... 2 vocabulary words you learned ... 1 question you still might have... Draw a picture to illustrate your learning or write down your thoughts!
