

Origin of the State Theories Project

Your goal is to defend your assigned theory in regards to the origin of the state. Your team will develop a PowerPoint, Brochure using Microsoft Publisher and then will take notes on the other presentations in class to prepare for your debate on which theory is the one that influenced the creation on the state.

What belongs in the Power Point?

1. What your assigned theory is and what is the definition of it.
2. Why your team feels that your assigned theory is the most accurate in explaining the origin of the state.
3. Give at least five examples in history that explains and showcases that your assigned theory makes the most sense and is convincing in regards to explaining the origin of the state (dynasty's, empires, leaders, Periods in History: Neolithic, etc.)
4. You are allowed to embed videos from YouTube in your Power Point if you are able to find some.
5. When complete please send to my email in an attachment: keithd.vanorum@rcsdk12.org

Promotional Pamphlet:

1. Please put all team members names in the pamphlet and also all the informant that you provided in the Power Point.
2. As your presentation takes place students will be able to refer to the pamphlet to help out their understanding what your argument is all about.
3. When complete email to me and I will make copies for the entire class.

There will be short question and answer session after each presentation. Each presentation should take at least five to ten minutes.

After each presentation takes place we will debate each theory. Whoever has the most convincing argument will be excused from next week's Chapter 1 Test, which will take place Friday.

GO BILLS!!!!

Mr. Van Ornum