- Self-portrait
- Their pet (or a dog or cat they love)
- Still life featuring fruit in a bowl
- Their least favorite food
- The exterior of their home
- The view outside of their window
- A day in the park
- The biggest tree they've ever seen
- Skyscrapers in a city (try to have them imagine they're looking up)
- Their favorite teacher
- Leaf line art
- Their hands or feet
- A collection of small objects (this might be better for older kids or more experienced young artists)
- Colorful peacock feather
- Sketching in a coffee shop—what's on the table?
- Drawing a portrait "in reverse" by sketching on black paper
- A shiny object like a glass or a metal spoon (again, good for older kids)
- Copy a work of art from a museum
- Fruits and vegetables cut in half
- Their favorite animal at the zoo
