

Thumbs Up for Art and Music!

written by Greg Leitich Smith

AUDIO

Audio with Highlighting

ANNOTATE

In school you learn to read and write. You learn to do math problems. Reading, writing, and math are important.

Some people don't think art in school is important,
but I do! Here is why.

CLOSE READ

Highlight the words that tell what happens at school.

Art is important because you learn to be creative. You have to use your imagination.

Art is important because it makes you think. You figure out how to make amazing things.

CLOSE READ

Underline what the author wants readers to think and why the author thinks that.

Some people don't think music
in school is important, but I do!
Here is why.

Music is important because it makes you concentrate.
You have to remember a lot.

CLOSE READ

Underline what the author wants readers to think and why the author thinks that.

Music is important because you can play with others. You learn about teamwork.

There are many reasons having art and music in school is important, but this is the best one. They are fun!

CLOSE READ

Underline why the author thinks art and music in school are important.