Name ___________________________ Date __________

Book Title __________________________________

Author ____________________________________ (1 point for all)

1) Write a Summary: What is this book about? (2 points)

________________________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________________________

Name ______________________________

2) Use your dictionary. Choose one new word to learn. (3 points)

Date _______________________________

The word is __________________. It means __________________

________________________________________________________________________________________

A sentence from the book with this word is

________________________________________________________________________________________

A new sentence with this word (*from your head) is

________________________________________________________________________________________

3) Rate it! How was this book for you? Circle your answer. (1 point)

This book was too easy.

This book was a good level for me.

This book was a little bit hard.

This book was too hard for me.