By Member of the Board Evans

WHEREAS, in December 1998, the City School District entered into a Software License and Service Agreement with PeopleSoft USA, Inc., to license various software modules including, but not limited to, PeopleSoft Human Resource Management Software for Public Sector, and PeopleSoft Financial for Public Sector; and

WHEREAS, in February 2001, the parties amended the Software License and Services Agreement whereby the District acquired licenses to additional software modules including eRecruit, eCompensation, eProfile, eDevelopment, eBenefits and ePay; and

WHEREAS, in December 2003, the parties executed a supplementary Schedule to the Software License and Services Agreement whereby the District acquired licenses to additional modules, including, but not limited to, Enterprise Learning Solutions Software Modules, PeopleSoft EPM Workforce Analytics Software Modules, PeopleSoft EPM Financials/ESA Analytics Software Modules, PeopleSoft Supply Chain Management Software Modules, and PeopleSoft Customer Relationship Management Software—PeopleTools Technology; and

WHEREAS, incremental license fees for all HRMS Software modules is based on the Districts’ employee count, and incremental license fees for the Financials Software modules is based on the District Reported Budget; and

WHEREAS, the limitations stipulated in the original Agreement and the supplementary Schedule to the Agreement for Base Employee Count and Reported Budget have been, or soon will be exceeded, thus precipitating the purchase of incremental licenses pursuant to the terms of the Agreement; and

WHEREAS, a new base metric has been negotiated by which the parties will measure the size of the District for the purpose of establishing the new limitations of the license for the HRMS and Financials Software modules; therefore be it;

Whereas, the Rochester Board of Education is committed to the goal of high student performance in all core subject areas; and

Whereas, the Rochester City School District is committed to the alignment of national, state and local standards for Social Studies; and

Whereas, the Rochester City School District has drafted and disseminated Social Studies curriculum that is aligned to the New York State curricular guidelines for Social Studies at the secondary level; and

Whereas, the current 11th grade textbooks do not reflect current initiatives, events and research related to Social Studies curriculum, standards, instruction and assessment; and

Whereas, the new scope and sequence of instructional materials for 11th grade students will serve as the foundation for improving student achievement in the core subject area of Social Studies and prepare students for graduation; and

Whereas, the committee of teachers, administrators and parents convened for the purpose of making a textbook recommendation has conducted a thorough research of available resources, based on specific criteria and determined that the following textbooks (in both English and Spanish) will meet the instructional needs of our students:

Prentice Hall: Pathways to the Present
Prentice Hall: Estados Unidos

Whereas, these findings were presented to the Board of Education through the Quality Assurance Committee on May 8, 2006; therefore it be

Resolved, that, upon the recommendation of the Superintendent of Schools, the above referenced textbooks be, and hereby are approved for use in elementary schools in the Rochester City School District, effective September 2006.
