Resolution No 2001-02: 654

By Member of the Board Brown-

Whereas, women of every race, class, and ethnicity have made historic contributions to the foundation, growth, and development of our nation, our state, and our city; and

Whereas, women have continued to play vital economic, cultural, and social roles in public and private life and in cultural institutions on the national and local levels, often by volunteering their labor; and

Whereas, women have exhibited the values of Participation, Respect for Others, Kindness and Caring, Obligation to the Public Good, and Advocacy by leading important social movements for abolition, emancipation, fair working conditions, suffrage, civil rights, and peace; and

Whereas, in Rochester, Susan B. Anthony and Harriet Tubman played key historical roles in the transformation of our society; and

Whereas, Rochester women from many groups and backgrounds have demonstrated the values of Giving their Best Effort and Patriotism by providing inspiration, leadership, and service to their nation, their communities, and their schools but have been overlooked and undervalued in the writing, teaching, and developing of curriculum in American history; and

Whereas, Rochester women have played vital roles on the Board of Education, in administration, as teachers, as staff, and as students in the history of the City School District; and

Whereas, the District's Vision of a "high performance school system characterized by high expectations" can only be achieved by ensuring equal educational challenges and opportunities for all students, regardless of gender; and

Whereas, the study of women in history will raise the level of awareness of women's contributions for all students, counteract negative female stereotypes, and provide exemplary role models to support and encourage girls to reach their highest goals; Therefore, be it,

Resolved, that the Rochester City School District Board of Education endorses the observance of National Women's History Month during March and will celebrate with a special program on Thursday, March 21, 2002, and be it further,

Resolved, that the Board encourages teachers, students, parents, staff, and all citizens to actively participate in this observance.

Whereas, the National Art Education Association has designated the month of March as

Youth Art Month

Whereas, since the dawn of history, the arts have involved people as creators, performers and audiences; and

Whereas, in school, the arts have been a chief resource for enriching students' experiences beyond academics and their immediate surroundings; and

Whereas, instruction in the arts encourages students to take pleasure in creating and performing in the arts regardless of their talent or previous experience; and

Whereas, the Fine Arts Policy was duly revised and adopted as the Arts Education Policy by the Rochester Board of Education on December 18, 1997, to reposition the arts as an essential part of the core curriculum and an important component in the educational program of students; Therefore, be it

Resolved, that the Rochester Board of Education endorses the observance of March as Youth Art Month and will celebrate the many accomplishments of our students during the ARTS EDUCATION OPEN HOUSE scheduled for Tuesday, March 26, 2002; and be it further

Resolved, that the Rochester Board of Education encourages teachers, students, parents, and all citizens to support the purposes and practices of art education and to participate in related programs and activities.
